Chapter 1 - Introduction and Summary

- 1.1 These guidelines have been published by the Standards in Public Office Commission under section 4(6)(a) of the Electoral Act 1997 as amended (the Act). The purpose of these guidelines is to ensure that members of the Houses of the Oireachtas and representatives in the European Parliament (MEPs) are informed of the steps they are required to take in relation to disclosure and, where necessary, refusal or remittance of donations. The guidelines also deal with the opening of political donations accounts. These guidelines replace previous guidelines published by the Standards Commission on this subject in January 2013.
- 1.2 The Standards Commission recommends that members and MEPs should read the guidelines in full. The Standards Commission is required under section 4(6)(b) of the Act to provide advice on compliance to persons who are covered by the provisions of the Act. Advice may be sought from the Standards Commission concerning any provision of the legislation or the application of such provision in any particular circumstance. If a person is in any doubt about any aspect of the legislation, he or she should contact the Standards Commission. Advice is given either in writing (including by e-mail) or by responding to telephone enquiries. The Standards Commission recommends that advice should be sought immediately if a matter arises about which there is uncertainty. By doing so, it is less likely that the issue will cause a difficulty later. A person must act in accordance with guidelines or advice published or given by the Standards Commission unless, by so doing, they would be contravening another provision of the Act.
- 1.3 The Act has been amended a number of times. In these guidelines a reference to a section of the Act should be read as including any amendment(s) to that section.
- 1.4 It should be noted that the Standards Commission is entitled to make such enquiries as it considers appropriate and may require any person to furnish any information, document or thing in the possession or procurement of the person which the Standards Commission may require for the purpose of its duties under the legislation.

Chapter 2 - Definitions

The following is a selection of definitions from the legislation which are necessary in order to understand the guidelines. A definition of what constitutes a donation is not included in this part of the guidelines. Chapter 3 of the guidelines sets out what are and are not donations to a member/MEP.

2.1 Person

A person is defined as including:

- an individual;
- a body corporate and any subsidiary thereof, e.g. a public or private company (a subsidiary of a body corporate is as defined under section 155 of the Companies Act); or
- an unincorporated body of persons, e.g. a political party, a sub-unit of a political party, a partnership, a residents association, a lobby group.

2.2 Corporate Donor

A corporate donor is defined as including:

- a body corporate;
- an unincorporated body of persons; or
- a trust, which makes a donation. A body corporate and any subsidiary thereof are deemed to be one person.

2.3 Political Party

A "political party" means a party registered in the Register of Political Parties in accordance with section 25 of the Electoral Act of 1992, as a party organised to contest a Dáil or European election or both such elections;

2.4 Subsidiary organisation

A subsidiary organisation of a political party means a body or association which either :

- forms part of such political party, or
- is established by or under the constitution of the political party, or
- is effectively controlled by the political party or the officers thereof, or
- has functions conferred on it by or under the constitution of the party.

This includes an accounting unit, a branch, a Cumann, a Comhairle Dáil Ceantair or any other sub-unit or part etc, of the party, even though they may have separate functions under the Act.

2.5 Political Purposes

Political purposes means:

- to promote or oppose, directly or indirectly, the interests of a political party, a political group, a member of either House of the Oireachtas or a representative in the European Parliament, or
- to present, directly or indirectly, the policies or a particular policy of a political party, a political group, a member of either House of the Oireachtas, a representative in the European Parliament or a third party, or

- a person authorised in accordance with the European Communities (Licensing and Supervision of Credit Institutions) Regulations 1992 (S.I. No. 395 of 1992) to carry on a business in the State.

NOTE: A credit union is not an institution for the purposes of the legislation.

2.7 Donation by an Intermediary

A donation by an Intermediary must be accompanied by:

- a notification that the donation is made on behalf of a person other than the person making the donation, and
- the name, description and postal address of the person on whose behalf the donation is made.

Chapter 3 - Donations

- 3.1 A donation to a member/MEP means any contribution given for political purposes by any person, whether or not the person is a member of a political party, and includes all or any of the following, namely:
- i. a donation of money (including a donation of money given to a member/MEP by his/her political party);
 - ii. a donation of property or goods;
 - iii. the free use of property or goods (i.e. conferring the right to use, without payment or other consideration, indefinitely or for a specified period of time, any property or goods);
 - iv. a free supply of services (i.e. the supply of services without payment or other consideration therefor);
 - v. the difference between the usual commercial price and the (lower) price charged for the purchase, acquisition or use of property or goods, or the supply of any service, where the price, fee or other consideration is less than the usual commercial price (this can include a loan provided to a member/MEP by a financial institution or by a third party at terms and conditions which are more favourable than that provided by the financial institution to other individuals. Details of the Standards Commission's position with regard to the issuing and repayment of loans are set out in chapter 4 of these guidelines;
 - vi. a contribution made by a person to a fund-raising event organised for the purpose of raising funds for a member/MEP. The donation is that proportion of the contribution which is attributable to the net profit, if any, deriving from the event. Donations are deemed to have been received on the date of the actual fund-raiser (and not when the funds are actually received). The position with regard to fund-raising events is explained in greater detail in the Appendix to these guidelines.
 - vii. a payment by a person on their own behalf, or on behalf of one or more than one other person, of a fee or subscription for membership or continued membership of a political party (membership fees include any membership fee/levy/subscription paid to any sub unit of a political party);

viii. a notional donation/donation in kind. This means that where a person/organisation pays for work/expenses from its own resources (i.e. not party funds) then this is considered a donation of the notional value/cost of the work/expenses to the donee. Donations in kind or notional donations are to be valued at the usual commercial price charged for the purchase, use or acquisition of the property or goods or the supply of the services donated. See Part 3.1(v) above.

3.2 Donations exceeding €600 in value received from the same donor in the same calendar year must be disclosed in the member's/MEP's annual Donation Statement (see paragraph 7.3 for further details). A member/MEP may not accept a donation from the same donor in the same calendar year which exceeds €1,000 in value (see paragraph 54 for further details). Where a person makes more than one donation to the same member/MEP in the same calendar year, the values of the donations must be aggregated and the donations treated as a single donation for the purposes of observing the disclosure and maximum acceptance limits.

3.3 A donation, whether made directly or through any intermediary, will be deemed to have been made to a member/MEP if it is made to him/her or to any agent or other person acting for him/her.

3.4 The Act provides that the following items shall not be regarded as a donation to a member/MEP:

- i. free postage facilities provided, under statute, for candidates at elections;
- ii. any payment, service or facility provided to a member/MEP out of public funds or moneys provided by an institution of the European Communities or other intergovernmental organisation to which the State is a party, pursuant to specified legislation, by virtue of the recipient being:
 - a member/MEP;
 - the holder of a qualifying office or position;
 - the holder of an elective or other public office; or
 - a member of, delegate to or representative in a body established by or under an agreement or arrangement to which the State is a party;

- iii. a free service provided by an individual, including the use of the individual's motor vehicle, on behalf of a member/MEP, where that service is not part of that individual's work or business;
- iv. a service provided at an election by an employee of a political party, including use of the employee's motor vehicle, whether the employee's remuneration is paid out of party resources or public funds, and the employee is not in receipt of any additional reward or benefit in kind for carrying out that service, or
- v. normal media coverage and the transmission on radio or television of a broadcast on behalf of a member, MEP or candidate at an election. This does not cover any production or other costs associated with such a broadcast.
- vi. expenses incurred by a political party on behalf of a member, MEP or a candidate of the political party at a Dáil, Seanad or European election. It is important to note that a donation of money given to a member/MEP by his/her political party (whether party headquarters or a local branch) is regarded as a donation and is subject to the disclosure and maximum acceptance limits.

3.5 The Act provides that where a donation is made to a member/MEP of a political party and the donation is passed on to the party by the member/MEP and he/she receives a written acknowledgement of receipt of the donation from the party, the donation will be deemed to have been made to the party. In such circumstances, the party is responsible for ensuring that the appropriate action is taken in relation to the donation.

Chapter 4 - Loans to members/MEPs

- 4.1 Where a loan is provided to a member/MEP by a financial institution or a third party and the normal commercial rules attaching to such loans apply, the loan is not regarded as a donation to the member/MEP. However, where a loan is provided to a member/MEP in circumstances where either the interest charged is less than the lowest rate available from a financial institution or the loan is not repaid in accordance with the terms and conditions under which the loan was issued or is only partially repaid, the benefit to the member/MEP may be regarded as a donation and may, therefore, be subject to the disclosure and maximum limits applying to the acceptance of donations.
- 4.2 Where an individual or body, who or which is not a financial institution, gives a loan to a member/MEP, it must be evident that the loan offered is a bona fide loan. In that regard the following would apply:
- i. As with a loan from a financial institution, the terms and conditions applying to the loan and its repayment must be stated clearly in writing.
 - ii. Interest is chargeable on the loan at a rate (whether fixed or variable) which reflects the interest charged by financial institutions on loans of a similar amount and duration. Where the interest charged is less than the lowest rate available from a financial institution, the benefit accruing from the difference in rates is regarded as a donation to the member/MEP.
 - iii. The Standards Commission may require sight of the terms and conditions, including the interest charge, applying to the loan and may require confirmation that the loan has been repaid in accordance with these terms and conditions.
 - iv. If the loan is not repaid in accordance with the terms and conditions, or is only partly repaid, the benefit of such non-repayment may be regarded as a donation to the member/MEP.

Chapter 5 - Prohibited Donations

5.1 Anonymous donations in excess of €100

5.1.1 A member/MEP may not accept an anonymous donation exceeding €100 in value. A donation is anonymous if the name and address of the donor is not known to the member/MEP concerned. If such a donation is received, the member/MEP must notify the Standards Commission in writing within 14 days of receipt of the donation and remit the donation, or its value, to the Standards Commission. The Standards Commission must lay a copy of each such notification received before both Houses of the Oireachtas.

5.2 Cash donations in excess of €200

5.2.1 A member/MEP may not accept a cash donation exceeding €200 in value. If such a donation is received, the member/MEP must, within 14 days of receipt of the donation, return the donation to the donor or, if it is a monetary donation, the part of it exceeding the limit and keep a written record of the return for the purpose of it being furnished to the Standards Commission, if required; or, the member/MEP must, within fourteen days of receipt, notify the Standards Commission of receipt of the donation and remit the donation or, if it is a monetary donation, the part of it exceeding the limit to the Standards Commission.

5.3 Donations by non-registered corporate donor in excess of €200

5.3.1 A member/MEP may not accept a donation exceeding €200 in value from a corporate donor unless the corporate donor is registered in the Register of Corporate Donors maintained by the Commission and a statement is made on behalf of the corporate donor (and furnished with the donation to the donee) confirming that the making of the donation was approved by the corporate donor. The statement must be accompanied by a statutory declaration that to the best of the knowledge and belief of the person concerned, the statement is correct in every material respect and that the person has taken all reasonable action in order to satisfy him/herself as to the accuracy of the statement.

5.3.2 If a donation is received from a non-registered corporate donor, the member/MEP must, within 14 days of receipt of the donation, return the donation to the donor or, if it is a monetary donation, the part of it exceeding the limit and keep a written record of the return for the purpose of it being furnished to the Standards Commission, if required; or, the member/MEP must, within fourteen days of receipt, notify the Standards Commission of receipt of the donation and remit the donation or, if it is a monetary donation the part of it exceeding the limit to the Standards Commission.

5.4 Donations in excess of the maximum prescribed limit of €1,000

5.4.1 The maximum value of donation(s) which a member/MEP may accept from the same donor in the same calendar year, either directly or through an intermediary, is €1,000. Where a donor makes more than one donation to a member/MEP in a particular year the values of the donations must be aggregated for the purpose of observing the maximum limit.

5.4.2 If a member/MEP receives a donation exceeding €1,000 in value, the donation must, within fourteen days of receipt, be returned by the member/MEP to the donor or, if it is a monetary donation, the part of it exceeding the limit must be returned to the donor. A written record of the return must be kept for the purpose of it being furnished to the Standards Commission, if required; or the member/MEP must, within fourteen days of receipt, notify the Standards Commission of receipt of the donation and remit the donation or the value thereof to the Standards Commission. In the case of a monetary donation, the part of it exceeding the limit must be remitted.

5.4.3 The maximum limit does not apply to a constituency office provided to a member/MEP by a person or, if more than one such office is provided, to whichever of the offices is nominated in writing by the member/MEP. It is important to note that, although the maximum limit may not apply to a donation of a constituency office, such a donation must be disclosed if the value exceeds €600.

5.4.4 As stated in paragraph 3.1, a donation of money given to a member/MEP by his/her political party is regarded as a donation. The maximum limit applies, therefore, to monetary donations received by a candidate from his/her political party. Donations of money from any branch of the party (including party headquarters) must be aggregated for the purpose of observing the maximum limit and treated as a single donation from the party.

5.5 Foreign donations

5.5.1 A member/MEP may not accept a donation, of any value, from an individual (other than an Irish citizen) who resides outside the island of Ireland. Similarly no donation, of any value, may be accepted from a body corporate or an unincorporated body of persons which does not keep an office in the island of Ireland from which at least one of its principal activities is directed.

5.5.2 The onus is on a member/MEP to make whatever enquiries are necessary and to obtain any corroborating evidence that may be required in order to be satisfied that he/she is not precluded from accepting a donation from the person concerned. The Standards Commission may require evidence that a member/MEP is permitted to accept a donation from a particular donor.

5.5.3 Notwithstanding this, where a prohibited foreign donation is received, the member/MEP should, within 14 days, return the donation to the donor and keep a written record of the return for the purpose of its being furnished to the Standards Commission, if required, or the member/MEP should, within 14 days, notify the Standards Commission and remit the donation, or the value thereof, to the Standards Commission.

5.6 Donations from donors who themselves are required to furnish a Donation Statement to the Standards Commission and who do not intend to do so

5.6.1 By 31 January in every year, under section 24(1A) of the Act, a donor is required to furnish a Donation Statement to the Standards Commission if, in the preceding year, the donor makes donations, exceeding in aggregate value €1,500, to

- two or more persons who were members of the same political party at the time the donations were made, or
- one or more persons and to the political party of which such person or persons were members at the time the donations were made.

5.6.2 If a member/MEP, who is a member of a political party, is offered a donation by a donor who is covered by this provision of the legislation and knows, or has reason to believe, that the donor does not intend to furnish a Donation Statement to the Standards Commission, the member/MEP is prohibited from accepting a donation from that donor.

5.6.3 If, notwithstanding this prohibition, such a donation is received, the member/MEP must, within 14 days of receipt, notify the Standards Commission in writing of the receipt of the donation and the name and address of the donor, and remit the donation or its value to the Standards Commission. The Standards Commission must lay a copy of each such notification before both Houses of the Oireachtas.

Chapter 6 - Political Donations Accounts

- 6.1 A member/MEP who receives, in a particular year, a monetary donation of more than €100 must open and maintain an account in a financial institution in the State and must lodge that donation and any further monetary donations received, of whatever value, to that account (hereafter referred to as a political donations account).
- 6.2 A definition of what constitutes "a financial institution" is provided in paragraph 2.6. It includes An Post and most banks, building societies and credit institutions. It does not, however, include a credit union. A credit union account, therefore, may not be used as a political donations account.
- 6.3 It should be noted that once a member/MEP has opened a political donations account, the requirement to maintain that account is ongoing. If, for example, a member/MEP were to close his/her political donations account (i.e. after an election) and he/she subsequently received a monetary donation of any value, the member/MEP would be required to re-activate the political donations account. Having regard to the possibility of such an occurrence, members/MEPs should maintain a political donations account even in circumstances where there is little or no activity on the account.
- 6.4 Not later than 31 January each year, a member/MEP who was required to open a political donations account must furnish, with the Donation Statement referred to in chapter 7, a statement provided by the financial institution where the political donations account was opened. The statement must specify the transactions that have taken place in relation to the account during the preceding year. The member/MEP must also furnish a Certificate of Monetary Donations on which he/she certifies that all monetary donations received during the preceding year were lodged to the account and that all amounts debited from the account were used for political purposes. The Standards Commission will issue a Certificate of Monetary Donations form to each member/MEP at the beginning of January each year.

- 6.5 The certificate must be accompanied by a statutory declaration that, to the best of the member's/MEP's knowledge and belief, the certificate is correct in every material respect and that all reasonable action has been taken in order to be satisfied as to the accuracy of the certificate.
- 6.6 If it is the case that there were no transactions on the member's/MEP's political donations account during the preceding year, the member/MEP will be required only to state this on the Certificate of Monetary Donations form. He/she will not be required to complete the Statutory Declaration on the Certificate of Monetary Donations form or to provide a statement from the financial institution in which the political donations account is held.
- 6.7 The Standards Commission retains the statements from financial institutions and Certificates of Monetary Donations and does not disclose the contents thereof, unless ordered by a court to do so or where disclosure is required in connection with an investigation held by the Standards Commission.

Chapter 7 - Donation Statements

- 7.1 Not later than 31 January each year, a Donation Statement must be furnished to the Standards Commission by each person, who in the preceding year, was a member/MEP. The Standards Commission will issue a Donation Statement form to each member/MEP at the beginning of January each year.
- 7.2 The Donation Statement must show whether or not, in the preceding calendar year, the member/MEP received, from the same person, a donation exceeding in value €600. Donations from the same person in the same calendar year must be aggregated and the donations treated as a single donation.
- 7.3 For each donation exceeding €600 received, the value and nature of the donation must be stated together with the name, address and a description of the person by, or on whose behalf, the donation was made, along with the date the donation was received; whether the donation was requested from the donor, and if so, the name and address of the person who requested the donation, and whether a receipt issued to the donor in respect of the donation, and if so, the date on which the receipt issued and the name of the person who issued the receipt. With regard to the address of the donor, the full postal address must be given. The Donation Statement must be accompanied by a statutory declaration that, to the best of the member's/MEP's knowledge and belief, the Donation Statement is correct in every material respect and that he/she has taken all reasonable action in order to be satisfied as to its accuracy. The Statutory Declaration must be witnessed by a person who is either a practising solicitor, a Commissioner for Oaths, a Peace Commissioner or a Notary Public. Each member/MEP has a statutory duty to make such enquiries and maintain such records as are necessary for the purpose of furnishing his/her Donation Statement and making the statutory declaration.
- 7.4 The Standards Commission must consider every Donation Statement furnished to it by a member/MEP. Where the Standards Commission finds a minor error or omission in a Donation Statement, it will furnish details of the error or omission to the member/MEP and will notify the member/MEP that he/she has 14 days from the date of the notice in which to correct the error or make good the omission. Where additional or supplemental information in relation to a member's/MEP's Donation Statement is required by the Standards Commission, it must be provided by the member/MEP in the form specified by the Standards Commission and may be accompanied by a statutory declaration, if the Standards Commission so requires.

7.5 Where, following consideration by it of a Donation Statement, the Standards Commission is of the opinion that a contravention of the legislation may have occurred, it is required to notify the member/MEP of the possible contravention and afford him/her 14 days to furnish any comments he/she may have. The Standards Commission will consider the comments provided by the member/MEP and, if it is still of the opinion that a contravention of the legislation has occurred, the Standards Commission will furnish a report on the matter, together with any relevant documentation, to the Director of Public Prosecutions.

7.6 As stated in paragraph 6.4, a member/MEP who was required to open a political donations account should ensure that the Donation Statement and statutory declaration furnished to the Standards Commission is accompanied by a statement from the financial institution in which the political donations account is held together with a Certificate of Monetary Donations relating to that account.

Chapter 8 - Publication of documents furnished to the Standards Commission

- 8.1 The Standards Commission is required to lay a copy of each Donation Statement and Statutory Declaration furnished to it before both Houses of the Oireachtas. The Donation Statements are retained at the offices of the Standards Commission for a period of three years and are available for public inspection and copying.
- 8.2 The Standards Commission furnishes a report to the Ceann Comhairle on the annual disclosure of donations by members/MEPs. This report is subsequently laid before both Houses of the Oireachtas. The report, which contains details of donations disclosed by members/MEPs is also published on the website of the Standards Commission (www.sipo.ie)
- 8.3 While the Standards Commission retains the statements from financial institutions and Certificates of Monetary Donations it does not disclose the contents of these documents.

Chapter 9 - Offences and penalties

- 9.1 A member/MEP will be guilty of an offence if he/she:
- i. fails to take the appropriate action, as set out in chapter 5, in relation to the receipt of an anonymous donation, a foreign donation or a donation in excess of the maximum prescribed limit. The penalty for this offence is a fine not exceeding €2,500;
 - ii. fails to take the appropriate action, as set out in paragraph 5.6, in relation to a donation from a donor whom the member/MEP is aware is required to furnish a Donation Statement to the Standards Commission (under section 24(1A) of the Act) and does not intend to do so. The penalty for this offence is a fine not exceeding €2,500;
 - iii. fails to furnish a Donation Statement/Statutory Declaration to the Standards Commission on or before 31 January each year. The penalty for this offence is a fine not exceeding €2,500 and a further fine of up to €500 per day for every day after the conviction on which the failure to provide the Donation Statement/Statutory Declaration continues;

- iv. where required, fails to furnish to the Standards Commission, on or before 31 January each year, a statement from a financial institution in which his/her political donations account is held and/or a Certificate of Monetary Donations. The penalty for this offence is a fine not exceeding €2,500 and a further fine of up to €500 per day for every day after the conviction on which the failure to provide the Donation Statement/Statutory Declaration continues;
- v. knowingly furnishes a Donation Statement and/or a statement from a financial institution and/or a Certificate of Monetary Donations, which is false or misleading in any material respect. A member/MEP found guilty of such an offence will be liable, on conviction on indictment, to a fine of up to €25,394.76 and/or upto three years in prison.

Proceedings for any of these offences may only be instituted by, or with the consent of, the Director of Public Prosecutions.

Appendix - Fund-raising events

Determining the net value of a contribution to a fund-raising event

In accordance with the provisions of sections 22(2)(a)(vi) & (vii) of the Act, a donation includes the net value of a contribution to a fund-raising event. A contribution to a fund-raising event is deemed to have been made on the date the fund-raising event is held (and not the date on which the contribution is actually received).

The net value of a contribution to an event is arrived at by first calculating the net profit from the event (i.e., by deducting the cost of running the event from the total amount raised by the event). The net profit is then attributed to the number of people contributing to the event in proportion to the contribution made by each person. This gives the net value of each person's contribution to the fund-raising event.

If, for example, in relation to a fund-raising event, a person had paid €1,000 in respect of the entry fee for 10 people, his/her gross contribution to the event would be €1,000. If the cost of running the event was €20 per person attending, a sum of €200 would be deducted from his/her gross contribution, leaving a net contribution of €800. If the person made other contributions to the event (e.g., buying horses at a race night, sponsoring a hole at a golf classic) it would be necessary to add the value of such contributions to the net contribution of €800 for the purposes of determining the aggregate net value of his/her contribution to the fund-raising event.

All donations must be aggregated to ensure that the maximum amount of €1,000 received in one calendar year is not breached by the recipient. In this regard the Member/MEP must keep proper records to ensure compliance with the legislation.

Fund-raisers organised by a political party

The net contribution made by a person to a fund-raising event organised by a political party is regarded as a donation to the political party, even if the funds are subsequently used for the purposes of supporting one or more of a party's elected representatives or candidates at an election.

Fund-raisers organised by a member/MEP

- The member/MEP will not be required to disclose in a Donation Statement the total value of the proceeds of the fund-raising event.
- The member/MEP will be required to disclose any donations from a person contributing to the event which exceed a net value of €600.
- The maximum limit of €1,000 for acceptance by members/MEPs of donations from any one person in the same year, also applies to the net value of contributions to fund-raising events.
- If the net value of any monetary donation to a fund-raising event organised by a member/MEP exceeds €100, the member/MEP, if he/she does not already have one, will be required to open a political donations account and lodge the donation and all subsequent monetary donations to the account.
- If the net value of an individual monetary donation to the event does not exceed €100, the member/MEP will not be required to open a political donations account.
- If the member/MEP already has opened a political donations account, all monetary donations, of whatever value, received in relation to the event must be lodged to the account.

Fund-raisers organised on behalf of a member/MEP by a person or group other than the member/MEP or his/her political party

Funds raised at an event organised on behalf of a member/MEP by a person or group other than the member/MEP or his/her political party (e.g., "Friends of ..." groups) will be treated as follows:

If the funds are handed over to the member/MEP the fund-raising person/group is regarded as an intermediary accepting donations on the member's/MEP's behalf and the donations are deemed to have been received by the member/MEP. The rules as set out under "Fund-raisers organised by a member/MEP" above apply.

If the funds are not handed over to the member/MEP the fund-raising person/group is not regarded as an intermediary accepting donations on the member's/MEP's behalf. In such circumstances the following rules will apply;

- if the net value of any donation to the fund-raising event exceeds €100 the person/group will be required to register as a "third party" with the Standards Commission and comply with the requirements of the legislation applying to third parties with regard to the opening of a political donations account and the acceptance of certain donations. These requirements are set out in a separate explanatory note which is available on the website of the Standards Commission.
- any election expenses incurred, or payments made, by the fund-raising group on behalf of the member/MEP are regarded as donations to the member/MEP;
- if the aggregate value of donations from the fund-raising group to the member/MEP exceeds €600, the member/MEP will be required to disclose details of same in his/her Donation Statement;
- The maximum value of donations which the member/MEP can accept in any year from a fund-raising person/group which is not regarded as an intermediary is €1,000.
