The decision on deletion of the person referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article shall be rendered.

The decision referred to in paragraph 2 of this Article shall be delivered to the person who has changed the domicile if his new domicile is known, or published in the regular manner in his last domicile.

The voter, who moved to the territory of the municipality, shall be notified on registration in electoral roll by the relevant authority of the municipality where that voter was previously registered in the electoral roll.

On the basis of the notification referred to in paragraph 4 of this Article, a voter shall be deleted from the electoral roll.

Article 18

The ministry competent for administrative issues shall decide on appeal filed against the decision referred to in Article 17.

Article 19

On the day following the day of calling of the elections, competent authority shall notify the citizens, by a public announcement or through the mass media, that they may inspect the electoral roll and request registration, deletion, change and correction of data in the electoral roll.

Every citizen may submit a request to the authority competent to maintain the electoral roll, for registration, deletion, change and correction of data in the electoral roll in case he or another citizen is not registered in the electoral roll, or is registered but does not have suffrage, or does not have suffrage on the territory of the municipality in which he is registered in the electoral roll, or in case any information in the electoral roll is entered incorrectly. After an electoral list has been proclaimed, the submitter of the electoral list shall have the same rights to inspect or submit requests for the modification of the electoral roll, observing the same procedure as that followed by the citizens. Required evidence shall be submitted together with the requests.

The authority competent to maintain the electoral roll shall rule on the request referred to in paragraph 2 of this Article within 48 hours from the day of its receipt. The decision shall be delivered to the submitter of request without delay.

A complaint may be filed against the decision referred in paragraph 3 of this Article, within 48 hours starting from the moment of delivery of the decision, to the court competent for administrative cases. The complaint shall be filed through the authority which made the decision, which shall be bound to file the complaint and all necessary files to the relevant court within 24 hours after the receipt of the complaint.

The decision on complaint referred to in paragraph 4 of this Article shall be made by the court within 24 hours from the receipt of the above stated complaint, in accordance with the regulations on administrative court procedures.

The decision of the court is final and enforceable.

Article 20

The electoral roll shall be concluded not later than 15 days before the day of the elections.

The electoral roll shall be concluded by a decision of the authority competent to maintain the electoral roll.

The decision referred to in paragraph 2 of this Article shall determine the total number of voters registered in the electoral roll, number of voters in each volume, date of conclusion of the electoral roll, signature of the responsible official and seal of the relevant authority.

When the electoral roll is maintained as described in Article 16 of this law, the decision on conclusion of the electoral roll shall include the data set out in paragraph 3 of this Article.

The decision referred to in paragraph 2 of this Article shall be submitted to the Republic Electoral Commission, not later than 24 hours after the moment of its rendering.

Article 21

The Republic Electoral Commission shall publish the total number of voters in the "Official Gazette of the Republic of Serbia".

The number of voters registered in special extracts from the electoral roll shall not be part of the total number of voters.

Article 22

After the conclusion of the electoral roll, citizens and submitters of proclaimed electoral list may request from the relevant court to render administrative decision on modifications of the electoral roll (registration or deletion of a voter in or from the electoral roll or modification, correction or addition of data in the electoral roll).

The decision of the relevant court on modification of the extract from the electoral roll shall be implemented by the Republic Electoral Commission, taking into account only the decisions of courts received no later than 48 hours before the date set for holding of the elections, after which the total number of voters is established and published in the "Official Gazette of the Republic of Serbia."

Article 23

The authority competent to maintain of the electoral roll shall compile an authorized extract from the electoral roll for every polling station, which is due to be delivered to the Republic Electoral Commission not later than 24 hours after the moment the decision on conclusion of the electoral roll is made.

The extract from the electoral roll shall be made pursuant to Article 15, paragraph 2 of this law.

1. ordinal number placed in front of the name of the electoral list,
2. names of the electoral lists, in the order determined in the general electoral list, with the personal name of the first candidate from the list,
3. note stating that it is possible to vote for one list only, by circling the ordinal number in front of the name of that list.

Article 60

Ballots shall be prepared and stamped by the Republic Electoral Commission.

The Republic Electoral Commission shall confirm the number of ballots, which must be equal to the number of voters registered in the electoral roll.

The Republic Electoral Commission shall control the preparation and stamping of the ballots and determine the number of spare ballots.

All ballots shall be printed at the same location, on the paper protected by watermark.

The submitter of the electoral list shall give to the Republic Electoral Commission the name of the person who shall have the right to be present during printing, counting and packing of the ballots, as well as their delivery to the authorities responsible for conducting of the elections.

In those municipalities where the languages of the national minorities are in official use, the ballots shall be printed in those languages as well.

The Republic Electoral Commission shall further regulate the form and layout of the ballots, the manner and control of their printing, as well as delivery and handling of the ballots.

Article 61

The minister in charge of administrative affairs shall issue further instructions on the form and dimensions of ballot boxes. The ballot boxes shall be made of transparent material (plexiglas, plastic, or similar material).

Article 62

The Republic Electoral Commission shall be obliged to timely prepare electoral materials for every polling board, more specifically, an adequate number of ballots, the general electoral list, the extract from the electoral roll, the certificates of suffrage, as well as the form for the minutes of the polling board.

Handover of the electoral materials shall be done not later than 48 hours before the day of the elections.

Municipal authorities shall be responsible for organization of polling stations, and shall prepare required number of ballot boxes with tools for their sealing, as well as the writing material for each polling board.

On the election day, before the beginning of voting, the polling board shall confirm whether the prepared electoral material for that polling station is complete and correct, whether the polling station has been organized in a manner ensuring the secrecy of the vote, and whether the voting may start, and shall enter that information in its minutes.

Article 63

The general electoral list, with the names of the electoral lists and of all the candidates, shall be prominently displayed at the polling station during the voting.

The content, form and manner of displaying of the general electoral list described in paragraph 1 of this Article shall be regulated by the Republic Electoral Commission.

Article 64

Representatives of the submitters of the electoral lists and candidates for MPs shall have the right to inspect electoral materials, especially the extracts from the electoral rolls, minutes of polling boards, minutes of the Republic Electoral Commission and ballots. This can be done at the official premises of the Republic Electoral Commission, as well as at the authorities keeping the electoral materials. Inspection of the electoral materials may be carried out within five days of the day of the elections.

Article 65

The electoral material shall be kept for a period of not less than four years.

The Republic Electoral Commission shall regulate the manner of use of the electoral materials.

Article 66

The Republic Electoral Commission shall determine the content and layout of the forms, and electoral material needed for conducting of the elections, within 15 days of its appointment.

3. Voting

Article 67

The polling board shall inspect the ballot box in the presence of the first voter to arrive at the polling station. The result of the inspection shall be entered into the control slip, which is signed by members of the polling board and by the first voter to arrive at the polling station.

The control slip shall be placed in the ballot box, and the ballot box shall then be sealed in the presence of the first voter to arrive, and this shall be recorded in the minutes of the polling board.

Upon opening of the ballot box, it shall first be checked whether it contains the control slip. If the ballot box does not contain a control slip, the polling board shall be dissolved and a new one appointed, and the voting at that polling station shall be repeated.

Both the form of the control slip and the manner of sealing of the ballot box shall be determined by the Republic Electoral Commission.

Article 68

Voter shall first state to the polling board his name and hand over the notification of elections, as well as prove his identity with identity card or other document.

Voter may not vote without presenting a proof of identity. The president or the member of the polling board, after having confirmed the identity of the voter, circles the ordinal number under which the voter has been registered into the electoral roll extract, and explains the voting procedure.

Voter shall sign the electoral roll and take the ballot.

The index finger of every voter who comes to vote and receives the electoral material shall be marked with a special spray, as a sign that he voted. This index finger mark shall last not less than 24 hours.

Article 69

Members of the polling board shall not, in any way, influence the voter's decision.

Members of the polling board are obliged to repeat explanation of the voting procedure to the voter, at his request.

Members of the polling board are obliged to pay special attention that the voter is not disturbed while marking out his ballot, and that the total secrecy of the voting is ensured.

If the provisions from paragraphs 1 through 3 of this Article are violated during voting, the Republic Electoral Commission shall dissolve the polling board, appoint a new one, and order the voting at that polling station to be repeated.

Article 70

Voter may vote only for one electoral list on the ballot. Voting is done by circling the ordinal number before the name of the selected electoral list.

Voter shall fold the ballot himself in such a way that his vote cannot be seen, drop it into the appropriate ballot box, and then leave the polling station.

Article 71

On the day of the elections, no modifications to the extract from the electoral rolls shall be done.

If the polling board acts contrary to paragraph 1 of this Article, it shall be dissolved, and voting at that polling station shall be repeated.

Article 72

The voter who is not able to vote personally at the polling station (blind, disabled or illiterate person) shall have the right to bring a person who shall fill the ballot in the manner determined by him, that is, vote instead of him.

The manner of voting of the voter referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article shall be recorded in the minutes.

Article 72a

The voter unable to vote at the polling station (persons unable or prevented from coming to the polling station) may inform the polling board whether he would like to vote, not later than 11 o'clock on the day of the voting.

Three members of the expanded polling board, representing submitters of three different electoral lists and designated by the polling board, shall visit such a voter, confirm his identity and give him an official envelope, an officially stamped ballot, the general electoral list, the certificate of suffrage and a special envelope for the completed ballot; they shall also inform the voter of the voting procedure, and then leave the room in which the voter votes.

After voting, the voter shall sign the certificate of suffrage, fold the ballot and place it in the special envelope, which shall then be stamped by members of the polling board with a seal on a sealing wax, after which they shall place the signed certificate of suffrage and the special envelope containing the ballot in the official envelope.

Upon returning to the polling station, members of the polling board shall immediately hand over the official envelope to the remaining members of the polling board; the envelope shall then be opened by the polling board, the voter's ordinal number in the electoral roll extract shall be circled on the basis of the signed certificate of suffrage, and, finally, the sealed envelope shall be opened, and the folded ballot removed and inserted into the ballot box in such a way as not to reveal the vote cast by that voter.

If the official envelope does not contain signed certificate of suffrage, the voter is deemed not to have voted.

Article 72b

The voter who is in custody or serving a prison sentence on the day of voting shall vote at a polling station inside the correctional facility he is in.

The Republic Electoral Commission shall establish special polling stations inside correctional facilities and appoint permanent members of polling boards and members of expanded polling boards. Officials of the ministry in charge of judicial affairs and persons voting inside the correctional facilities may not be members of the polling boards.

The ministry in charge of administrative affairs shall prepare and officially stamp special extracts from the electoral for each correctional facility and submit them to the Republic Electoral Commission not later than 24 hours from the day of the decision of closing of electoral roll.

Special extracts referred to in paragraph 3 of this Article shall be forwarded by the Republic Electoral Commission to the correctional facilities' polling boards.

Article 73

The voters who are serving the military service or temporary military duty, or are attending education programs in units or institutions of the Serbian Armed Forces, shall vote at the announced polling station nearest to the unit or institution where they are doing their military service, military duty or attending education programs.

The Republic Electoral Commission shall publish in the Official Gazette of the Republic of Serbia, not later than 20 days before the day of the elections, at which previously determined polling stations soldiers serving the military service, temporary military duty or attending education programs in units or institutions of the Serbian Armed Forces shall vote.

The ministry in charge of administrative affairs shall prepare and officially stamp special extracts from the electoral roll for the voters referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article and submit them to the Republic Electoral Commission not later than 24 hours from the day of adoption of decision to conclude electoral roll.

Special extracts referred to in paragraph 3 of this Article shall be forwarded by the Republic Electoral Commission to the polling boards where those voters doing their military service, military duty or attending education programs in units or institutions of the Serbian Armed Forces shall vote.

Article 73a

The voters temporarily residing abroad shall vote at diplomatic missions and consular posts of the Republic of Serbia and at special polling stations determined by the Republic Electoral Commission, with the Commission having consulted beforehand with the ministry in charge of foreign affairs.

The ministry in charge of administrative affairs shall prepare and officially stamp special extracts from the electoral roll for the voters referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article and submit them to the Republic Electoral Commission not later than 24 hours from the day of adoption of decision to conclude the electoral roll.

Special extracts referred to in paragraph 2 of this Article shall be forwarded by the Republic Electoral Commission to the ministry in charge of foreign affairs, which then forwards them together with other election material to all polling stations abroad.

Permanent members of polling boards abroad shall be appointed by the Republic Electoral Commission, at the proposal of the ministry in charge of foreign affairs.

Expanded polling boards abroad shall consist of one representative of each submitter of a proclaimed electoral list. Members of expanded polling boards shall be appointed by the Republic Electoral Commission at the proposal of the submitters of proclaimed electoral lists.

As a rule, the chairman of the polling board shall be appointed from the ranks of law faculty graduates employed at a diplomatic mission or consular post.

Article 73b

On the basis of the Special Record of Voters Residing Abroad, the ministry in charge of administrative affairs shall, immediately upon calling of the elections, prepare a special record for each foreign country, and forward it to the ministry in charge of foreign affairs, which shall, through diplomatic missions and consular posts of the State Union of Serbia and Montenegro, inform voters of the calling of the elections, the date of the elections and the means of exercising their suffrage.

The registries of voters shall be available in diplomatic missions and consular posts of the State Union of Serbia and Montenegro, and their copies in the ministry in charge of administrative affairs. In regards to the right of the citizens and submitters of electoral lists to review the registry of voters and obtains the copy of it, as well as the right to request modifications of the Special Record of Voters Residing Abroad shall be regulated in accordance with the provisions of this law related with the rights of the citizens and submitters of the electoral lists to review electoral rolls and requests modifications of the electoral rolls.

The ministry in charge of administrative affairs shall make decisions on requests for registration, deletion, modifications, corrections and additions to data in the Special Record of Voters Residing Abroad, even for those requests submitted to diplomatic missions or consular posts of the State Union of Serbia and Montenegro, or to the body in charge of keeping of the electoral roll.

Article 73v

Voter registered in the Special Record of Voters Residing Abroad may, not later than 20 days before the day of the elections, inform a diplomatic mission or consular post of the State Union of Serbia and Montenegro or the ministry in charge of administrative affairs of his intention to vote at a polling station in the Republic of Serbia, which shall be recorded in the Special Record of Voters Residing Abroad.

Voter who is not registered in the Special Record of Voters Residing Abroad, but is registered in the electoral roll may, not later than 20 days before the day of the elections, inform a diplomatic mission or consular post of the State Union of Serbia and Montenegro or the ministry in charge of administrative affairs of their intention to vote abroad. After submitting all the required data, the voter shall be registered in the Special Record of Voters Residing Abroad and deleted from it after the elections.

Article 73g

The ministry in charge of administrative affairs shall, not later than 15 days before the day of the elections, conclude the Special Record of Voters Residing Abroad, create and officially stamp special extracts from the electoral roll for every polling station abroad, create lists of voters registered in the Special Record of Voters Residing Abroad for every municipality, and immediately forward the officially stamped special extracts from the electoral roll and all the lists of voters registered in the Special Record of Voters Residing Abroad to the Republic Electoral Commission.

The Republic Electoral Commission shall forward the officially stamped extracts from the electoral roll to the ministry in charge of foreign affairs, which shall then forward those extracts, along with other electoral materials, to all polling stations abroad where voting is to take place.

The list of voters registered in the Special Register of Voters Residing Abroad shall be sorted out by the Republic Electoral Commission according to polling stations in the Republic of Serbia, and those lists shall be forwarded to the polling boards along with other electoral materials.

IX DETERMINING AND PUBLISHING OF THE ELECTION RESULTS

1. Determining election results

Article 74

Upon completion of the voting, the polling board shall proceed to determine the results of voting at that polling station.

The polling board shall first determine the number of unused ballots and place them in a special envelope which shall then be sealed.

Based on the extract from the electoral roll, the polling board shall determine the total number of voters who have voted.

When the ballot box is opened, and after checking the control slip, the valid ballots shall be separated from the invalid ones.

The polling board shall determine the number of invalid ballots and record it into the minutes, and then determine the number of valid ballots, as well as the number of votes cast for each electoral list, and record these in the minutes, as well.

Invalid ballot is the one that is not marked, the one marked in such a way so that it is impossible to determine for which electoral list the vote has been cast, and the one with more than one electoral list circled.

If the name and surname of the first candidate on the electoral list has been circled on the ballot, or the name or part of the name of the electoral list, or if both the ordinal number and the name of the electoral list and the name and surname of the first candidate have been circled, such ballot shall be considered valid.

If it is established that the number of ballots in the ballot box is larger than the number of voters who have voted, the polling board shall be dissolved, a new one appointed, and the voting at that polling station shall be repeated.

Article 75

After the results of voting have been determined, the polling board shall enter the following in its minutes: the number of ballots received; the number of unused ballots; the number of invalid ballots; the number of valid ballots; the number of votes cast for each electoral list; the number of voters according to the extract from the electoral roll and the number of voters who have voted.

The polling board minutes shall also include remarks and opinions of the members of the polling board, submitters of the electoral lists and joint representatives of the submitters of the electoral lists, as well as all other facts relevant to the voting.

The polling board minutes shall be signed by all members of the polling board.

Article 76

The minutes on the work of the polling board shall be written on the official form printed in six copies.

In the municipalities where the languages of national minorities are in official use, the official form for the minutes shall be printed in those languages, as well.

The first copy of the minutes, together with the defined electoral material, shall be delivered to the Republic Electoral Commission.

The second copy of the minutes shall be publicly displayed at the polling station.

The remaining four copies of the minutes shall be delivered to the representatives of submitters of electoral lists that received the highest number of votes at that polling station, and this shall be done immediately if the submitter of the electoral list has the representative in the polling board; if not, the representative of the submitter of the electoral list can get the copy of the minutes from the electoral commission within the period of 12 hours.

Other submitters of electoral lists are entitled to obtain a certified photocopy of the minutes from the polling station from the Republic Electoral Commission, within 12 hours from the delivery of the electoral material from the polling station to the Republic Electoral Commission.

Article 77

Upon determining of the results of voting, the polling board shall, without delay and not later than 18 hours after the closing of the polling station, deliver the following to the Republic Electoral Commission: the minutes of its work, the extract from the electoral roll; unused and, separately, used ballots; invalid and, separately, valid ballots; as well as the rest of electoral material.

Article 78

Within 96 hours of closing of the polling stations, the Republic Electoral Commission shall determine the following in its minutes: the total number of voters registered in the electoral roll; the number of voters who have voted at polling stations; the total number of ballots received at polling stations; the total number of unused ballots; the total number of invalid ballots; the total number of valid ballots; the number of votes cast for each electoral list individually.

The Republic Electoral Commission shall determine the results of the elections and make a separate record on that.

The Republic Electoral Commission shall determine the content and layout of the form for the minutes of its work.

Article 79

The submitters of the electoral lists may deliver to the Republic Electoral Commission the name of person who will be present at the statistical processing of data in the Republic Electoral Commission.

Article 80

Each electoral list shall be distributed a number of mandates proportional to the number of votes won.

Article 81

Only those electoral lists that won at least 5% of votes out of the total number of voters who have voted in the electoral unit shall participate in distribution of mandates.

Political parties of ethnic minorities and coalitions of political parties of ethnic minorities shall participate in distribution of mandates even if they won less than 5% of votes out of the total number of voters who have voted.

All the parties whose main objective is to represent and advocate interests of an ethnic minority, as well as to protect and improve the rights of members of ethnic minorities, in accordance with standards set forth by international law, shall be considered as political parties of ethnic minorities.

The Republic Electoral Commission shall decide, at the proclamation of an electoral list, whether the submitter of the electoral list should be considered as political party of ethnic minority or a coalition of political parties of ethnic minorities, at the request of the submitter of the electoral list which must be made at the time of electoral list submission.

Article 82

The Republic Electoral Commission shall distribute the mandates by applying the highest quotient system.

The mandates shall be distributed by dividing the total number of votes won by each individual electoral list by numbers from one to 250 inclusive.

Thus calculated quotients are then sorted by size, and 250 largest quotients are taken into account. Each electoral list is distributed the number of mandates according to the number of such quotients it has.

If two or more electoral lists get the same quotients on the basis of which a mandate is to be distributed, and there are no more mandates to be distributed, the mandate shall be distributed to that list which won higher total number of votes.

If none of the electoral lists won at least 5% of the votes, distribution shall be done in the manner described in paragraphs 1 through 3 of this Article.

Article 83

Mandates belonging to a certain electoral list shall be distributed to candidates from that list, in accordance with provisions of this law.

When an electoral list has been distributed more mandates than there are candidates for MPs on that list, these mandates shall be distributed to the electoral list with the next largest quotient.

Article 84**

Not later than 10 days from the date of publishing of the results of elections, the Republic Electoral Commission shall distribute all the mandates won by election lists to the candidates according to their order on the electoral list, starting from the first candidate on that list.

2. Publishing the results of the elections

Article 85

The Republic Electoral Commission shall publish the data on the total outcome of the elections for MPs in the "Official Gazette of the Republic of Serbia", including:

1. the number of voters registered in the electoral roll,
2. the total number of voters who have voted,
3. the number of ballots received,
4. the number of unused ballots,
5. the number of used ballots,
6. the number of invalid ballots,
7. the number of valid ballots,
8. the number of votes won by individual electoral lists,
9. the number of mandates won by individual electoral lists.

Article 86

The Republic Electoral Commission shall publish the results of the elections within 96 hours of the moment the voting has ended.

From the moment the voting is completed until the publication of the results of the elections, the Republic Electoral Commission shall announce preliminary results of elections via mass media.

The results of the elections shall be published in the "Official Gazette of the Republic of Serbia".

Article 87

The Republic Electoral Commission shall issue to the MP a certificate that he has been elected.

X TERMINATION OF MANDATE, REPEATED ELECTIONS AND FILLING OF VACATED MP POSITIONS

1. Termination of mandate

Article 88*

MP's mandate shall be terminated before the end of term for which he has been elected in the following cases:

1. (Ceased to apply by the decision of the Constitutional Court of the Republic of Serbia),
2. if he resigns,
3. if he has been convicted by final court decision to an unconditional prison sentence of not less than six months,
4. if his business capacity has been revoked by final court decision,
5. if he has taken up a function or position which are, according to this law, incompatible with the function of MP,
6. if he loses citizenship,
7. if he no longer has domicile on the territory of the Republic of Serbia,
8. in case of death of MP,
9. (Ceased to apply by the decision of the Constitutional Court of the Republic of Serbia)

MP shall personally submit his resignation letter, certified by the body in charge of certification of signatures, to the National Assembly Speaker, not later than three days of the day of certification.

MP's mandate shall be terminated on the day of occurrence of events referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article.

The day of termination of the mandate is determined by the National Assembly of the Republic of Serbia at the current session, or at the first session following the receipt of report on the reasons for termination of MP's mandate.

Article 89

Repeated elections shall be conducted if the Republic Electoral Commission annuls the voting due to irregularities in implementation of the elections, in the cases foreseen by this law.

Article 90

In case the Republic Electoral Commission annuls the voting at one polling station, the voting shall be repeated only at that polling station.

When the voting is repeated in cases foreseen by this law, the Republic Electoral Commission shall make a decision on repeating of the voting.

In cases referred to in Articles 89 and 90 of this law, the result of the elections shall be determined after the end of the repeated voting.

Article 91

Repeated voting is conducted in the manner and according to the procedure for implementation of elections, as stipulated by this law.

Repeated elections shall be called by the Republic Electoral Commission.

Repeated elections shall be held not later than 15 days from the day of annulment of voting in the Republic of Serbia, or not later than seven days from the day of annulment of voting in a polling station.

Repeated elections shall be held on the electoral list determined for the elections that have been annulled, except in the case when elections have been annulled due to irregularities in the establishing of the electoral list.

Article 92

In case MP's mandate ceases before the end of the term for which he has been elected due to cases referred to in the Article 88, paragraph 1 of this law, the mandate shall be awarded to a new MP, in the manner stipulated by this Article.

When MP's mandate ceases before the end of the term for which he has been elected, the mandate shall be awarded to the first candidate from the same electoral list who was not awarded a mandate.

When mandate of an MP elected from a coalition electoral list ceases before the end of the term for which he has been elected, the mandate shall be awarded to the first candidate from the same electoral list who was not awarded a mandate – to the member of the same political party.

The candidate who was awarded an MP mandate and whose mandate ceased due to him assuming the function of the member of the Government may be re-awarded the mandate in the same National Assembly convocation under the following conditions:

- that the candidate's function as member of the Government has ceased,
- that there is a vacant MP position belonging to the same electoral list, and
- that the candidate has submitted a request to the Republic Electoral Commission for awarding of MP mandate.

When MP's mandate ceases before the end of the term for which he has been elected due to cases described in paragraph 1 of this Article, and there are no candidates on the electoral list on which the MP was elected for whom the submitter of electoral list did not win a mandate, the mandate shall be awarded to the submitter of the electoral list with the next largest quotient on the basis of which he did not win a mandate.

Mandate of the new MP shall run until expiration of the mandate of the MP whose mandate has ceased.

In cases referred to in paragraphs 2, 3 and 5 of this Article, written agreement of acceptance of the mandate shall be obtained from the candidate before confirmation of the mandate.

XI PROTECTION OF SUFFRAGE

Article 93

During the election procedure, the authorities conducting the elections shall notify the voters of their suffrage and how to protect this right.

Article 94

Every voter, candidate for MP and submitter of the electoral list has the right to protection of his suffrage, under the procedure determined by this law.

Article 95

Every voter, candidate and submitter of electoral list has the right to file a complaint with the Republic Electoral Commission due to breach of suffrage during the elections, or irregularities in the procedure of candidacy or voting.

Complaint against a decision, act or omission of a polling board shall be filed with the Republic Electoral Commission.

Complaint referred to in paragraphs 1 and 2 of this Article shall be filed within 24 hours of the making of the decision or of the execution of the act which the plaintiff deems irregular, or from the moment when the omission was made.

Article 96

The Republic Electoral Commission shall make a decision within 48 hours of the moment of receipt of the complaint and deliver it to the petitioner, as well as to all submitters of the electoral lists.

In case the Republic Electoral Commission adopts the complaint, it shall annul the relevant decision or action.

In case the Republic Electoral Commission does not make a decision on the complaint within the period specified by this Law, the appeal shall be considered adopted.

Article 97

An appeal may be filed in the Administrative Court against any decision on the complaint made by the Republic Electoral Commission.

This appeal shall be filed through the Republic Electoral Commission within 48 hours of the receipt of that decision.

The Republic Electoral Commission shall deliver the appeal and all required documents to the Administrative Court within 24 hours from the moment of receipt of the appeal.

The Administrative Court shall make a decision on the appeal according to provisions of the law regulating the procedure in administrative cases.

Decision on the appeal shall be made not later than 48 hours after the receipt of the appeal and the accompanying documentation.

Decision on the appeal is final and no extraordinary legal remedies foreseen by the Law on administrative procedure may be filed against it.

If the court adopts this appeal and annuls electoral action, that is, elections, the relevant electoral act, that is, elections, shall be repeated within 10 days.

XII COSTS OF ELECTIONS

Article 98

Resources for the work of authorities conducting the elections, as well as for the electoral materials and other election implementation expenses shall be provided from the budget of the Republic.

Request for allocation of resources, together with specification of total expenses, shall be submitted by the Republic Electoral Commission.

Amounts paid as compensation for the work of persons in the authorities conducting the elections shall be exempt from taxes and contributions.

Article 99

In the election implementation procedure, general supervision of activities of political parties, candidates and the mass media in the course of electoral activities shall be performed by supervisory board.

The supervisory board shall have ten members, and half of those members shall be appointed by the National Assembly of the Republic of Serbia based on recommendation of the Government of the Republic of Serbia, and the other half at recommendation of the parliamentary groups of the National Assembly of the Republic of Serbia, from the ranks of prominent public officials, under the condition that they are not members of the political party bodies taking part in the elections.

Members of the supervisory board shall elect the president of the supervisory board from among themselves, by a secret ballot.

Article 100

The supervisory board shall:

1. monitor pre-election activities and point out possible irregularities in the acts of political parties, candidates and other participants in the electoral procedure,
2. control the mass media activities in application of provisions of this law regarding providing of equal conditions for presentation of submitters of the electoral lists and candidates from the electoral lists,
3. suggest measures for respecting equality of candidates in presentation of their programs,
4. address the public in order to protect the moral integrity of candidate's character,
5. warn of acts of political parties, administrative bodies, candidates and the mass media which hinder the electoral campaign and jeopardize equal rights of all candidates.

If any participant of the electoral campaign behaves in such a way to incite violence, or spread national, religious or racial hatred, or encourage gender inequality, the supervisory board for the electoral campaign shall, without delay, initiate the procedure before relevant state authorities.

In case the agreement referred to in Article 51 of this Law is not concluded in the period stipulated, the supervisory board shall determine the number and duration of broadcasts for equal presentation of submitters of the electoral lists.

Article 101

The National Assembly of the Republic of Serbia shall appoint the members of the Republic Electoral Commission within 20 days of coming into force of this law.

The Republic Electoral Commission shall adopt the acts foreseen by this law, not later than five days from the day of appointment of its members.

The Republic Electoral Commission shall determine polling stations where the voting for MPs shall be carried out, so as to enable voters to carry out voting for these MPs as well as for other MPs, i.e. councilors, for whom elections are being held on the same day, at the same premises or, if possible, at the nearest premises to those where the other elections are being simultaneously conducted.

Article 102

The data on the number of voters shall be published in the "Official Gazette of the Republic of Serbia" by the organization competent for statistics, within ten days of the coming into force of this law.

Article 103

(Ceased to apply)

XIII PUNITIVE PROVISIONS

Article 104

A member of the Republic Electoral Commission, or a member of the polling board, or any person who, while performing duties related to the election of MPs, changes the number of votes won by adding or subtracting ballots, or changes the number of votes during the counting of ballots, or publishes the result of voting that is not in line with the voting carried out, shall be punished for criminal offense with a prison sentence of up to three years.
