(4) Where contracting authorities choose to award a single contract, the following criteria shall apply to determine the applicable legal regime:

(a) where part of a given contract is covered by Article 346 of the TFEU, the contract may be awarded without applying these regulations, provided that the award of a single contract is justified for objective reasons;

Provided that this paragraph shall be without prejudice to the thresholds and exclusions provided for in the Public Procurement of Contracting Authorities or Entities in the fields of Defence and Security Regulations. S.L. 601.07

(5) The decision to award a single contract shall not, however, be taken for the purpose of excluding contracts from the application of either these regulations or the Public Procurement of Contracting Authorities or Entities in the fields of Defence and Security Regulations. S.L. 601.07

(6) The provisions of sub-regulation (4)(a) shall apply to mixed contracts to which both paragraphs (a) and (b) of sub-regulation (4) could otherwise apply.

(7) Where the different parts of a given contract are objectively not separable, the contract may be awarded without applying these regulations where it includes elements to which Article 346 of the TFEU applies; otherwise it may be awarded in accordance with the Public Procurement of Contracting Authorities or Entities in the fields of Defence and Security Regulations.

The Contract Value

Regulation for the calculation of the estimated value of procurement.

(2) Where the contracting authority provides for prizes or payments to candidates or tenderers it shall take them into account when calculating the estimated value of the procurement.

(3) Where a contracting authority is comprised of separate operational units, account shall be taken of the total estimated value for all the individual operational units.

(4) Notwithstanding the provisions of sub-regulations (1) and (2), where a separate operational unit is independently responsible for its procurement or certain categories thereof, the values may be estimated at the level of the unit in question.

(5) The choice of the method used to calculate the estimated value of a procurement procedure shall not be made with the intention of excluding it from the scope of these regulations. A procurement procedure shall not be subdivided with the effect of preventing it from falling within the scope of these regulations, unless justified by objective reasons.

(6) That estimated value shall be valid at the moment at which the call for competition is sent, or, in cases where a call for competition is not foreseen, at the moment at which the contracting authority commences the procurement procedure, for instance, where appropriate, by contacting economic operators in relation to the procurement.

Value of framework agreements.

29. With regard to framework agreements and dynamic purchasing systems, the value to be taken into consideration shall be the maximum estimated value net of VAT of all the contracts envisaged for the total term of the framework agreement or the dynamic purchasing system.

Value of innovation partnerships.

30. In the case of innovation partnerships, the value to be taken into consideration shall be the maximum estimated value net of VAT of the research and development activities to take place during all stages of the envisaged partnership as well as of the supplies, services or works to be developed and procured at the end of the envisaged partnership.

31. (1) With regard to public works contracts, the calculation of the estimated value shall take account of both the cost of the works and the total estimated value of the supplies and services that are made available to the contractor by the contracting authority provided that they are necessary for executing the works.

Value of public works.

(2) Where a proposed work or a proposed provision of services may result in contracts being awarded in the form of separate lots, account shall be taken of the total estimated value of all such lots.

(3) In the case where the aggregate value of the lots established in sub-regulation (2) is equal to or exceeds the threshold laid down in Schedule 5, these regulations shall apply to the awarding of each lot.

(4) Where a proposal for the acquisition of similar supplies may result in contracts being awarded in the form of separate lots, account shall be taken of the total estimated value of all such lots when applying points (b) and (c) of Schedule 5.

(5) Where the aggregate value of the lots established in sub-regulation (4) is equal to or exceeds the threshold laid down in Schedule 5, these regulations shall apply to the awarding of each lot.

(6) Notwithstanding the provisions of sub-regulations (2), (3), (4) and (5), contracting authorities may award contracts for individual lots without applying the procedures provided for under these regulations, provided that the estimated value net of VAT of the lot concerned is less than eighty thousand euro (€80,000) for supplies or services or one million euro (€1,000,000) for works. However, the aggregate value of the lots thus awarded without applying these regulations shall not exceed 20% of the aggregate value of all the lots into which the proposed work, the proposed acquisition of similar supplies or the proposed provision of services has been divided.

32. (1) In the case of public supply or service contracts which are regular in nature or which are intended to be renewed within a given period, the calculation of the estimated contract value shall be based on the following:

Value of public supply or service contracts.

- (b) the total estimated value of the successive contracts awarded during the twelve months following the first delivery, or during the financial year where that is longer than twelve months.

(2) With regard to public supply contracts relating to the leasing, hire, rental or hire purchase of products, the value to be taken as a basis for calculating the estimated contract value shall be as follows:

- (a) in the case of fixed-term public contracts, where that term is less than or equal to twelve months, the total estimated value for the term of the contract or, where the term of the contract is greater than twelve months, the total value including the estimated residual value;
 - (b) in the case of public contracts without a fixed term or the term of which cannot be defined, the monthly value multiplied by 48.
- (3) With regard to public service contracts, the basis for calculating the estimated contract value shall, where appropriate, be the following:
- (a) insurance services: the premium payable and other forms of remuneration;
 - (b) banking and other financial services: the fees, commissions payable, interest and other forms of remuneration;
 - (c) design contracts: fees, commissions payable and other forms of remuneration.
- (4) With regard to public service contracts which do not indicate a total price, the basis for calculating the estimated contract value shall be the following:
- (a) in the case of fixed-term contracts, where that term is less than or equal to forty-eight months: the total value for their full term;
 - (b) in the case of contracts without a fixed term or with a term greater than forty-eight months: the monthly value multiplied by 48.

Contracts into Lots

Division of contracts into lots.

33. Contracting authorities may decide to award a contract in the form of separate lots and may determine the size and subject-matter of such lots.

Information about decision not to divide contracts into lots.

34. Where a tender has an estimated value which falls under regulation 9(1)(b), contracting authorities shall provide an indication of the main reasons for their decision not to subdivide into lots, which shall be included in the procurement documents or the individual report referred to in regulation 113.

Disclosure.

35. Contracting authorities shall indicate, in the contract notice or in the invitation to confirm interest, whether tenders may be submitted for one, for several or for all of the lots.

Limitation of lots.

36. Contracting authorities may, even where tenders may be submitted for several or all lots, limit the number of lots that may be awarded to one tenderer, provided that the maximum number of lots per tenderer is stated in the contract notice or in the invitation to confirm interest. Contracting authorities shall indicate in the procurement documents the objective and non-discriminatory criteria or rules they intend to apply for determining which lots will be awarded where the application of the award criteria would result in one tenderer being awarded more lots than the maximum number.

37. Where one or more lots may be awarded to the same tenderer, contracting authorities may award contracts combining several or all lots where they have specified in the contract notice or in the invitation to confirm interest that they reserve the possibility of doing so and indicate the lots or groups of lots that may be combined.

Combination of lots.

Principles Underlying the Procurement Process

38. (1) The procurement document shall be written in clear and unambiguous terms so as to enable all interested parties to understand properly the terms and conditions of the process.

Clarity of the procurement documents.

(2) If requested in good time, the contracting authorities shall supply to all tenderers taking part in the procurement procedure additional information relating to the specifications and any supporting documents not later than six days before the time limit fixed for the receipt of tenders.

(3) In the event of an accelerated procedure as referred to in regulation 116(3) and regulation 122, the period established under this regulation shall be four days.

(4) The contracting authority or the central government authority may issue clarification notes to explain certain matters, to give additional information, to remove or amend certain inconsistencies or errors and to fill in missing information contained in the procurement document.

(5) When issued in the clarification notes, the additional information and the supporting document shall form integral part of the procurement document.

39. (1) Contracting authorities shall treat economic operators equally and without discrimination and shall act in a transparent and proportionate manner.

Equal treatment, transparency and proportionality.

(2) The tenderer must be selected in a transparent manner and according to a prescribed procedure.

(3) The design of the procurement shall not be made with the intention of excluding it from the scope of these regulations or of artificially narrowing competition. Competition shall be considered to be artificially narrowed where the design of the procurement is made with the intention of unduly favouring or disadvantaging certain economic operators.

(4) In so far as they are covered by Annexes 1, 2, 4 and 5 and the General Notes to the European Union's Appendix I to the GPA and by the other international agreements by which the Union is bound, contracting authorities shall accord to the works, supplies, services and economic operators of the signatories to those agreements treatment no less favourable than the treatment accorded to the works, supplies, services and economic operators of the Union.

Confidentiality.

40. (1) Subject to the obligations established under these regulations and, or any other law obliging the Director, the contracting authority and the Ministerial Procurement Unit to disclose information, a contracting authority, the Director or the Ministerial Procurement Unit shall not disclose information forwarded to it by economic operators which they have designated as confidential, including, but not limited to, technical or trade secrets and the confidential aspects of tenders.

(2) Without prejudice to the other provisions of these regulations, the following information shall not be considered as confidential:

- (a) the name of the bidders and the individual names of the members of a group of economic operators who submitted a particular tender;
- (b) the name of the sub-contractors;
- (c) documentation submitted by economic operators attesting that they comply with selection criteria; and
- (d) technical information which is already made available in public.

(3) Contracting authorities may impose on economic operators requirements aimed at protecting the confidential nature of information which the contracting authorities make available throughout the procurement procedure.

Publication

Prior information notices.

41. The authority responsible for the tendering process may make known its intentions of planned procurements through the publication of a prior information notice. These notices shall contain the information set out in Schedule 9 part B section I. They shall be published either by the Publications Office of the European Union or by the contracting authorities on their buyer profiles in accordance with paragraph 2(b) of Schedule 11. Where the prior information notice is published by the authority responsible for the tendering process on its buyer profile, it shall send a notice of the publication on their buyer profile to the Publications Office of the European Union in accordance with Schedule 11. These notices shall contain the information set out in Schedule 9 part A.

Contract notices.

42. (1) Contract notices shall be used as a means of calling for competition in respect of all procedures, without prejudice to the provisions of regulation 150.

Contract award notices.

43. (1) Not later than thirty days after the conclusion of a contract or of a framework agreement, following the decision to award or conclude it, the authority responsible for the tendering process shall send a contract award notice on the results of the procurement procedure.

(2) The notice shall contain the information set out in Schedule

9 part D and shall be published in accordance with regulation 44.

(3) In the case of framework agreements concluded in accordance with regulations 167 to 173, the authority responsible for the tendering process shall not be bound to send a notice of the results of the procurement procedure for each contract based on that agreement:

Provided that the authority responsible for the tendering process shall group notices of the results of the procurement procedure for contracts based on the framework agreement on a quarterly basis. In that case, contracting authorities shall send the grouped notices within thirty days of the end of each quarter.

(4) The authority responsible for the tendering process shall send a contract award notice within thirty days after the award of each contract based on a dynamic purchasing system. It may, however, group such notices on a quarterly basis. In that case, it shall send the grouped notices within thirty days of the end of each quarter.

(5) Certain information on the contract award or the conclusion of the framework agreement may be withheld from publication where its release would impede law enforcement or otherwise be contrary to the public interest, would harm the legitimate commercial interests of a particular economic operator, public or private, or might prejudice fair competition between economic operators.

44. (1) Notices referred to in regulations 41, 42 and 43 are obligatory only in respect to tenders with an estimated value which meets or exceeds the threshold established under Schedule 5 and shall include the information set out in Schedule 9 in the format of standard forms, including standard forms for corrigenda.

Form and manner
of notices.

(2) These notices shall also be drawn up, transmitted by electronic means to the Publications Office of the European Union and published in accordance with Schedule 10.

(3) The authority responsible for the tendering process shall be able to supply proof of the dates on which notices are dispatched.

(4) The confirmation of the receipt of the notice and the publication of the information sent by the Publications Office of the European Union shall constitute proof of publication.

45. (1) Unless otherwise authorised by the Director, tenders issued with an estimated value which falls under regulation 9(1)(b) shall be published through government's e-procurement platform:

national level.

Provided that if the authority responsible for the tendering process does not make use of the government's e-procurement platform it shall advertise the tender on the Gazette.

(2) Notices referred to in regulations 41, 42 and 43 and the information contained therein shall not be published at national level before the publication pursuant to regulation 44:

Provided that publication may in any event take place at the national level where the authority responsible for the tendering process has not been notified of the publication within forty-eight hours after confirmation of the receipt of the notice in accordance with regulation 44.

(3) Notices and advertisements published locally shall not contain information other than that contained in the notices dispatched to the Publications Office of the European Union or published on a buyer profile, but shall indicate the date of dispatch of the notice to the Publications Office of the European Union or its publication on the buyer profile.

(4) Prior information notices shall not be published on a buyer profile before the dispatch to the Publications Office of the European Union of the notice of their publication in that form. They shall indicate the date of that dispatch.

Contest notice.

46. (1) The authority responsible for the tendering process that intends to carry out a design contest with an estimated value which meets or exceeds the threshold established under Schedule 5 shall make known their intention by means of a contest notice.

(2) Where it intends to award a subsequent service contract pursuant to regulation 154(1)(b), this shall be indicated in the contest notice. In the case where no contest notice needs to be published the contracting authority must make its intention clear in the procurement documents.

(3) The authority that has held a design contest shall send a notice of the results of the contest in accordance with regulation 44 and shall be able to prove the date of dispatch.

(4) Where the release of information on the outcome of the contest would impede law enforcement, would be contrary to the public interest or would prejudice the legitimate commercial interests of a particular enterprise, whether public or private, or might prejudice fair competition between service providers, such information may be withheld from publication.

(5) The notices referred to in sub-regulations (1) to (4) shall be published in accordance with regulations 44 and 45. They shall include the information set out respectively in Schedule 9 parts E and F in the format of the standard forms.

Preliminary Market Consultations

Preliminary market consultations.

47. (1) Before launching a procurement procedure, contracting authorities may conduct market consultations with a view to preparing the procurement and informing economic operators of their procurement plans and requirements.

(2) Contracting authorities may, for instance, seek or accept advice from independent experts or authorities or from market participants. That advice may be used in the planning and conduct of the procurement procedure, provided that such advice does not have the effect of distorting competition and does not result in a violation of the principles of non-discrimination and transparency.

Communications

48. (1) All communication and information exchange under these regulations, including electronic submission, shall be performed using electronic means of communication in accordance with the requirements of this regulation.

Rules applicable to communication.

(2) The tools and devices to be used for communicating by electronic means, as well as their technical characteristics, shall be non-discriminatory, generally available and interoperable with the ICT products in general use and shall not restrict economic operators' access to the procurement procedure.

(3) Notwithstanding the provisions of sub-regulations (1) and (2), contracting authorities shall not be obliged to require electronic means of communication in the submission process in the following situations:

- (a) due to the specialised nature of the procurement, the use of electronic means of communication would require specific tools, devices or file formats that are not generally available or supported by generally available applications;
- (b) the applications supporting file formats that are suitable for the description of the tenders use file formats that cannot be handled by any other open or generally available applications or are under a proprietary licensing scheme and cannot be made available for downloading or remote use by the contracting authority;
- (c) the use of electronic means of communication would require specialised office equipment that is not generally available to contracting authorities;
- (d) the procurement documents require the submission of physical or scale models which cannot be transmitted using electronic means.

(4) In respect of communications for which electronic means of communication are not used pursuant to sub-regulation (3), communication shall be carried out by post or other suitable carrier or by a combination of post or other suitable carrier and electronic means.

(5) The authority responsible for the tendering process is not obliged to require electronic means of communication in the submission process to the extent that the use of means of communication other than electronic means is necessary either because of a breach of security of the electronic means of communications or for the protection of the particularly sensitive nature of information requiring such a high level of protection that it cannot be properly ensured by using electronic tools and devices that are either generally available to economic operators or can be made available to them by alternative means of access within the meaning of sub-regulations (5) and (6).

(6) It shall be the responsibility of the authority responsible for the tendering process requiring, in accordance with sub-regulation (3), means of communication other than electronic means in the submission process to indicate in the individual report referred to in regulations 29 or 241, as the case may be, the reasons for this requirement. Where applicable, the authority responsible for the tendering process shall indicate in the individual report the reasons why use of means of communication other than electronic means has been considered necessary in application of sub-regulation (5).

(7) Oral communication may be used in respect of communications other than those concerning the essential elements of a procurement procedure, provided that the content of the oral communication is documented to a sufficient degree. For this purpose, the essential elements of a procurement procedure include the procurement documents, requests for participation, confirmations of interest and tenders. In particular, oral communications with tenderers which could have a substantial impact on the content and assessment of the tenders shall be documented to a sufficient extent and by appropriate means, such as written or audio records or summaries of the main elements of the communication.

(8) In all communication, exchange and storage of information, the authority responsible for the tendering process shall ensure that the integrity of data and the confidentiality of tenders and requests to participate are preserved. It shall examine the content of tenders and requests to participate only after the time limit set for submitting them has expired.

(9) For public works contracts and design contests the authority responsible for the tendering process require the use of specific electronic tools, such as of building information electronic modelling tools or similar. In such cases the authority responsible for the tendering process shall offer alternative means of access, as provided for in sub-regulations (10) and (11), until such time as those tools become generally available within the meaning of sub-regulation (2).

(10) The authority responsible for the tendering process may, where necessary, require the use of tools and devices which are not generally available, provided that the authority responsible for the tendering process offers alternative means of access.

(11) The authority responsible for the tendering process shall be deemed to offer suitable alternative means of access in any of the following situations, where they:

- (a) offer unrestricted and full direct access free of charge by electronic means to those tools and devices from the date of publication of the notice in accordance with Schedule 11 or from the date when the invitation to confirm interest is sent. The text of the notice or the invitation to confirm interest shall specify the internet address at which those tools and devices are accessible;
- (b) ensure that tenderers having no access to the tools and devices concerned, or no possibility of obtaining them within the relevant time limits, provided that the lack of access is not attributable to the tenderer concerned, may access the procurement procedure through the use of provisional tokens made available free of charge online; or

- (c) support an alternative channel for electronic submission of tenders.

(12) In addition to the requirements set out in Schedule 8, the following rules shall apply to tools and devices for the electronic transmission and receipt of tenders and for the electronic receipt of requests to participate:

- (a) information on specifications for the electronic submission of tenders and requests to participate, including encryption and time-stamping, shall be available to interested parties;
- (b) the authority responsible for the tendering process shall specify the level of security required for the electronic means of communication in the various stages of the specific procurement procedure; that level shall be proportionate to the risks attached:

Provided that the requirement established under this paragraph shall be deemed to be satisfied when electronic means of communications are carried out through government's e-procurement platform;

- (c) where the authority responsible for the tendering process acting within an overall framework concludes that the level of risks, assessed under paragraph (b), is such that advanced electronic signatures as defined by Directive 1999/93/EC of the European Parliament and of the Council are required, contracting authorities shall accept advanced electronic signatures supported by a qualified certificate, taking into account whether those certificates are provided by a certificate services provider, which is on a trusted list provided for in Commission Decision 2009/767/EC, created with or without a secure signature creation device, subject to compliance with the following conditions:
 - (i) the authority responsible for the tendering process shall establish the required advanced signature format on the basis of formats established in Commission Decision 2011/130/EU and shall put in place necessary measures to be able to process these formats technically; in case a different format of electronic signature is used, the electronic signature or the electronic document carrier shall include information on existing validation possibilities. The validation possibilities shall allow the authority responsible for the tendering process to validate online, free of charge and in a way that is understandable for non-native speakers, the received electronic signature as an advanced electronic signature supported by a qualified certificate;

- (ii) where a tender is signed with the support of a qualified certificate that is included on a trusted list, the authority responsible for the tendering process shall not apply additional requirements that may hinder the use of those signatures by tenderers.

(13) In respect of documents used in the context of a procurement procedure that are signed by a competent authority or by another issuing entity, the competent issuing authority or entity may establish the required advanced signature format in accordance with the requirements set out in Article 1(2) of Decision 2011/130/EU.

(14) For the purposes of sub-regulation (13), the competent authority or entity shall put in place the necessary measures to be able to process that format technically by including the information required for the purpose of processing the signature in the document concerned. Such documents shall contain in the electronic signature or in the electronic document carrier information on existing validation possibilities that allow the validation of the received electronic signature online, free of charge and in a way that is understandable for non-native speakers.

(15) For the purposes of this Part, contracting authorities listed under Schedule 3 do not require the prior approval of the Director but shall suffice the written consent by the head of that same contracting authority.

Electronic availability of procurement documents.

49. (1) With regard to tenders with an estimated value which falls under Schedule 5, the authority responsible for the tendering process shall by electronic means offer unrestricted and full direct access free of charge to the procurement documents from the date of publication of a notice in accordance with regulation 44 or the date on which an invitation to confirm interest is sent. The text of the notice or the invitation to confirm interest shall specify the internet address at which the procurement documents are accessible.

(2) With regard to tenders with an estimated value which falls under Schedule 5, where unrestricted and full direct access free of charge by electronic means to certain procurement documents cannot be offered for one of the reasons stipulated in regulation 48(2), the authority responsible for the tendering process may indicate in the notice or the invitation to confirm interest that the procurement documents concerned will be transmitted by means other than electronic means:

Provided that in such a case, the time limit for the submission of tenders shall be prolonged by five days, except in the cases of duly substantiated urgency referred to in regulations 116(3), 122 and 125.

(3) With regard to tenders with an estimated value which falls under Schedule 5, where unrestricted and full direct access free of charge by electronic means to certain procurement documents cannot be offered because the authority responsible for the tendering process intends to apply the provisions of regulation

40(3), it shall indicate in the notice or the invitation to confirm interest which measures aimed at protecting the confidential nature of the information it requires and how access can be obtained to the documents concerned:

Provided that in such a case the time limit for the submission of tenders shall be prolonged by five days, except in the cases of duly substantiated urgency referred to in regulations 116(3), 122 and 125.

50. (1) In restricted procedures, competitive dialogue procedures, innovation partnerships and competitive procedures with negotiation, contracting authorities shall simultaneously and in writing invite the selected candidates to submit their tenders or, in the case of a competitive dialogue, to take part in the dialogue.

Invitations to candidates.

(2) The invitations shall include a reference to the electronic address on which the procurement documents have been made directly available by electronic means. The invitations shall be accompanied by the procurement documents, where those documents have not been the subject of unrestricted and full direct access, free of charge, for the reasons set out in regulation 49(1) and (2) and have not already been made otherwise available. In addition, the invitations referred to in sub-regulation (1) shall include the information set out in Schedule 12.

51. (1) Where the use of electronic means of communication is required, the authority responsible for the tendering process may require tenders to be presented in the format of an electronic catalogue or to include an electronic catalogue.

Electronic catalogues.

(2) Tenders presented in the form of an electronic catalogue may be accompanied by other documents, completing the tender.

(3) Electronic catalogues shall be established by the candidates or tenderers with a view to participating in a given procurement procedure in accordance with the technical specifications and format established by the contracting authority.

(4) Electronic catalogues shall comply with the requirements for electronic communication tools as well as with any additional requirements set by the contracting authority in accordance with regulation 48.

(5) Where the presentation of tenders in the form of electronic catalogues is accepted or required, the authority responsible for the tendering process shall:

- (a) state so in the contract notice;
- (b) indicate in the procurement documents all the necessary information pursuant to regulation 48(12) concerning the format, the electronic equipment used and the technical connection arrangements and specifications for the catalogue.

(6) Where a framework agreement has been concluded with more than one economic operator following the submission of tenders in the form of electronic catalogues, the authority responsible for the tendering process may provide that the reopening of competition for specific contracts takes place on the basis of updated catalogues. In such a case, the authority responsible for the tendering process shall use one of the following methods:

- (a) invite tenderers to resubmit their electronic catalogues, adapted to the requirements of the contract in question; or
- (b) notify tenderers that they intend to collect from the electronic catalogues which have already been submitted the information needed to constitute tenders adapted to the requirements of the contract in question; provided that the use of that method has been announced in the procurement documents for the framework agreement.

(7) Where authorities responsible for the tendering process reopen competition for specific contracts in accordance with sub-regulation (6)(b) they shall notify tenderers of the date and time at which they intend to collect the information needed to constitute tenders adapted to the requirements of the specific contract in question and shall give tenderers the possibility to refuse such collection of information.

(8) Authorities responsible for the tendering process shall allow for an adequate period between the notification and the actual collection of information.

(9) Before awarding the contract, authorities responsible for the tendering process shall present the collected information to the tenderer concerned so as to give it the opportunity to contest or confirm that the tender thus constituted does not contain any material errors.

(10) Authorities responsible for the tendering process may award contracts based on a dynamic purchasing system by requiring that offers for a specific contract are to be presented in the format of an electronic catalogue.

(11) Authorities responsible for the tendering process may also award contracts based on a dynamic purchasing system in accordance with sub-regulation (6)(b) and sub-regulations (7), (8) and (9) provided that the request for participation in the dynamic purchasing system is accompanied by an electronic catalogue in accordance with the technical specifications and format established by the contracting authority.

(12) For the purposes of sub-regulation (11), the catalogue shall be completed subsequently by the candidates, when they are informed of the contracting authority's intention to constitute tenders by means of the procedure set out in sub-regulation (6)(b).

Time Limits and Technical Specifications

Setting time limits.

52. (1) When establishing the time limits for the receipt of tenders and requests to participate, authorities responsible for the tendering process shall take account of the complexity of the contract and the time required for the drawing up of procurement documents, without prejudice to the minimum time limits set out in regulations 116, 121, 122, 125, 142 and 132.

(2) Where tenders can be submitted only after a site visit or after on-the-spot inspection of the documents supporting the procurement documents, the time limits for the receipt of tenders shall be longer than the minimum time limits set out in regulations 116, 121, 122, 125, 142 and 132, and shall be fixed so that all economic operators concerned may be aware of all the information needed to produce tenders.

(3) Contracting authorities shall extend the time limits for the receipt of tenders so that all economic operators concerned may be aware of all the information needed to produce tenders in the following cases:

- (a) where, for whatever reason, additional information, although requested by the economic operator in good time, is not supplied at the latest six days before the time limit fixed for the receipt of tenders. In the event of an accelerated procedure as referred to in regulations 116(3) and 122, that period shall be four days;
- (b) where significant changes are made to the procurement documents.

(4) The length of the extension shall be proportionate to the importance of the information or change.

(5) Where the additional information has either not been requested in good time or its importance with a view to preparing responsive tenders is insignificant, authorities responsible for the tendering process shall not be required to extend the time limits.

(6) Late submission of tenders shall be disqualified from the process.

53. (1) The technical specifications shall be set out in the procurement documents and these shall lay down the characteristics required of a works, service or supply.

Technical specifications.

(2) These characteristics may also refer to the specific process or method of production or provision of the requested works, supplies or services or to a specific process for another stage of its life cycle, even where such factors do not form part of their material substance, so long they are linked to the subject-matter of the contract and are proportionate to its value and its objectives.

(3) The technical specifications may also specify whether the transfer of intellectual property rights will be required.

(4) For all procurement which is intended for use by natural persons, whether general public or staff of the contracting authority, the technical specifications shall, except in duly justified cases, be drawn up so as to take into account accessibility criteria for persons with disabilities or design for all users.

(5) Where mandatory accessibility requirements are adopted by a legal act of the Union, technical specifications shall, as far as accessibility criteria for persons with disabilities or design for all users are concerned, be defined by reference thereto.

(6) Technical specifications shall afford equal access of economic operators to the procurement procedure and shall not have the effect of creating unjustified obstacles to the opening up of public procurement to competition.

(7) Without prejudice to mandatory technical rules, to the extent that they are compatible with Union law, the technical specifications shall be formulated in one of the following ways:

- (a) in terms of performance or functional requirements, including environmental characteristics, provided that the parameters are sufficiently precise to allow tenderers to determine the subject-matter of the contract and to allow contracting authorities to award the contract;
- (b) by reference to technical specifications and, in order of preference, to national standards transposing European standards, European Technical Assessments, common technical specifications, international standards, other technical reference systems established by the European standardisation bodies or - when any of those do not exist - national standards, national technical approvals or national technical specifications relating to the design, calculation and execution of the works and use of the supplies; each reference shall be accompanied by the words 'or equivalent';
- (c) in terms of performance or functional requirements as referred to in paragraph (a), with reference to the technical specifications referred to paragraph (b) as a means of presuming conformity with such performance or functional requirements;
- (d) by reference to the technical specifications referred to in paragraph (b) for certain characteristics, and by reference to the performance or functional requirements referred to in paragraph (a) for other characteristics.

(8) Unless justified by the subject-matter of the contract, technical specifications shall not refer to a specific make or source, or a particular process which characterises the products or services provided by a specific economic operator, or to trade marks, patents, types or a specific origin or production with the effect of favouring or eliminating certain undertakings or certain products. Such reference shall be permitted on an exceptional basis, where a sufficiently precise and intelligible description of the subject-matter of the contract pursuant to sub-regulation (3) is not possible. Such reference shall be accompanied by the words 'or equivalent'.

(9) Where a contracting authority uses the option of referring to the technical specifications referred to in sub-regulation 7(b), it shall not reject a tender on the grounds that the works, supplies or services tendered for do not comply with the technical specifications to which it has referred, once the tenderer proves in its tender by any appropriate means, including the means of proof referred to in regulation 232, that the solutions proposed satisfy in an equivalent manner the requirements defined by the technical specifications.

(10) Where a contracting authority uses the option laid down in sub-regulation (7)(a) to formulate technical specifications in terms of performance or functional requirements, it shall not reject a tender for works, supplies or services which comply with a national standard transposing a European standard, a European technical approval, a common technical specification, an international standard or a technical reference system established by a European standardisation body, where those specifications address the performance or functional requirements which it has laid down.

(11) In its tender, the tenderer shall prove by any appropriate means, including those referred to in regulation 232 that the work, supply or service in compliance with the standard meets the performance or functional requirements of the contracting authority.

54. (1) Where contracting authorities and, or the authorities responsible for the tendering process intend to purchase works, supplies or services with specific environmental, social or other characteristics they may, in the technical specifications, the award criteria or the contract performance conditions, require a specific label as means of proof that the works, services or supplies correspond to the required characteristics, provided that all of the following conditions are fulfilled: Labels.

- (a) the label requirements only concern criteria which are linked to the subject-matter of the contract and are appropriate to define characteristics of the works, supplies or services that are the subject-matter of the contract;
- (b) the label requirements are based on objectively verifiable and non-discriminatory criteria;
- (c) the labels are established in an open and transparent procedure in which all relevant stakeholders, including government bodies, consumers, social partners, manufacturers, distributors and non-governmental organisations, may participate;
- (d) the labels are accessible to all interested parties;
- (e) the label requirements are set by a third party over which the economic operator applying for the label cannot exercise a decisive influence.

(2) Where contracting authorities do not require the works, supplies or services to meet all of the label requirements, they shall indicate which label requirements are referred to.

(3) Contracting authorities requiring a specific label shall accept all labels that confirm that the works, supplies or services meet equivalent label requirements.

(4) Where an economic operator had demonstrably no possibility of obtaining the specific label indicated by the contracting authority or an equivalent label within the relevant time limits for reasons that are not attributable to that economic operator, the contracting authority shall accept other appropriate means of proof, which may include a technical dossier from the manufacturer, provided that the economic operator concerned proves that the works, supplies or services to be provided by it fulfil the requirements of the specific label or the specific requirements indicated by the contracting authority.

(5) Where a label fulfils the conditions provided in sub-regulation (1)(b), (c), (d) and (e) but also sets out requirements not linked to the subject-matter of the contract, contracting authorities shall not require the label as such but may define the technical specification by reference to those of the detailed specifications of that label, or, where necessary, parts thereof, that are linked to the subject-matter of the contract and are appropriate to define characteristics of this subject-matter.

Test reports, certification and other means of proof.

55. (1) The authorities responsible for the tendering process may require that economic operators provide a test report from a conformity assessment body or a certificate issued by such a body as means of proof of conformity with requirements or criteria set out in the technical specifications, the award criteria or the contract performance conditions.

(2) Where the authorities responsible for the tendering process require the submission of certificates drawn up by a specific conformity assessment body, certificates from equivalent other conformity assessment bodies shall also be accepted by the contracting authorities.

(3) The authorities responsible for the tendering process shall accept appropriate means of proof other than those referred to in sub-regulations (1) and (2), such as a technical dossier of the manufacturer where the economic operator concerned had no access to the certificates or test reports referred to in sub-regulations (1) and (2), or no possibility of obtaining them within the relevant time limits, provided that the lack of access is not attributable to the economic operator concerned and provided that the economic operator concerned thereby proves that the works, supplies or services provided by it meet the requirements or criteria set out in the technical specifications, the award criteria or the contract performance conditions.

The Tenderer/Candidate

Types of tenderers.

56. A tenderer can be either a natural or a legal person or a public entity or group of such persons and, or entities.

Economic operators established in another Member State.

57. Economic operators that, under the law of the Member State in which they are established, are entitled to provide the relevant service, shall not be rejected solely on the ground that, under the law of Malta, they would be required to be either natural or legal persons:

(2) Before the authority responsible for the tendering process makes use of the Dynamic Purchasing system it must obtain the written consent of the Director.

(3) The dynamic purchasing system shall be operated as a completely electronic process, and shall be open throughout the period of validity of the purchasing system to any economic operator that satisfies the selection criteria.

(4) It may be divided into categories of products, works or services that are objectively defined on the basis of characteristics of the procurement to be undertaken under the category concerned. Such characteristics may include reference to the maximum allowable size of the subsequent specific contracts or to a specific geographic area in which subsequent specific contracts will be performed.

175. (1) In order to procure under a dynamic purchasing system, the authorities responsible for the tendering process shall follow the rules of the restricted procedure as applicable. Applicable rules.

(2) All the candidates satisfying the selection criteria shall be admitted to the system, and the number of candidates to be admitted to the system shall not be limited in accordance with regulation 237. No further time limits for receipt of requests to participate shall apply once the invitation to tender for the first specific procurement under the dynamic purchasing system has been sent;

(b) the minimum time limit for receipt of tenders shall be at least ten days from the date on which the invitation to tender is sent and regulation 121(2) and (3) shall not apply.

- (c) indicate any division into categories of products, works or services and the characteristics defining them;
- (d) offer unrestricted and full direct access, as long as the system is valid, to the procurement documents in conformity with regulation 49.

(3) Contracting authorities shall finalise their assessment of the requests identified under sub-regulation (2) in accordance with the selection criteria within ten working days following their receipt.

(4) The deadline established in sub-regulation (3) may be prolonged to fifteen working days in individual cases where justified, in particular because of the need to examine additional documentation or to otherwise verify whether the selection criteria are met.

(5) Notwithstanding the provisions of sub-regulations (2), (3) and (4), as long as the invitation to tender for the first specific procurement under the dynamic purchasing system has not been sent, the authorities responsible for the tendering process may extend the evaluation period provided that no invitation to tender is issued during the extended evaluation period. The authorities responsible for the tendering process shall indicate in the procurement documents the length of the extended period that they intend to apply.

(6) The authorities responsible for the tendering process shall inform the economic operator concerned at the earliest possible opportunity of whether or not it has been admitted to the dynamic purchasing system.

(7) The authorities responsible for the tendering process shall invite all admitted participants to submit a tender for each specific procurement under the dynamic purchasing system, in accordance with regulation 50. Where the dynamic purchasing system has been divided into categories of works, products or services, the authorities responsible for the tendering process shall invite all participants having been admitted to the category corresponding to the specific procurement concerned to submit a tender.

(8) They shall award the contract to the tenderer that submitted the best tender on the basis of the award criteria set out in the contract notice for the dynamic purchasing system. Those criteria may, where appropriate, be formulated more precisely in the invitation to tender.

178. (1) The authorities responsible for the tendering process may, at any time during the period of validity of the dynamic purchasing system, require admitted participants to submit a renewed and updated self-declaration as provided for in regulations 225, 226 and 227, within five working days from the date on which that request is transmitted.

Charges.

Electronic Auctions

181. (1) The authorities responsible for the tendering process may use electronic auctions, in which new prices, revised downwards, and, or new values concerning certain elements of tenders are presented.

Electronic auctions.

(2) Before the authority responsible for the tendering process makes use of the electronic auctions it must obtain the written permission of the Director.

182. (1) The electronic auction shall be structured as a repetitive electronic process, which occurs after an initial full evaluation of the tenders, enabling them to be ranked using automatic evaluation methods.

Structure.

(2) Certain public service contracts and certain public works contracts having as their subject-matter intellectual performances, such as the design of works, which cannot be ranked using automatic evaluation methods, shall not be the object of electronic auctions.

Use of electronic auction in other modes of procurement.	183. (1) In open or restricted procedures or competitive procedures with negotiation with an estimated value falling under regulation 9(1)(b), the authorities responsible for the tendering process may decide that the award of a public contract shall be preceded by an electronic auction when the content of the procurement documents, in particular the technical specifications, can be established with precision. (2) In the same circumstances, an electronic auction may be held on the reopening of competition among the parties to a framework agreement as provided for in regulation 173(2)(b) or (c) and on the opening for competition of contracts to be awarded under the dynamic purchasing system.
Elements.	184. The electronic auction shall be based on one of the following elements of the tenders: <ul style="list-style-type: none">(a) solely on prices where the contract is awarded on the basis of price only;(b) on prices and, or on the new values of the features of the tenders indicated in the procurement documents where the contract is awarded on the basis of the best price-quality ratio or to the tender with the lowest cost using a cost-effectiveness approach.
Disclosure.	185. The authorities responsible for the tendering process which decide to hold an electronic auction shall state that fact in the contract notice or in the invitation to confirm interest as the case maybe. The procurement documents shall include at least the information set out in Schedule 10.
Initial evaluation.	186. Before proceeding with an electronic auction, contracting authorities shall make a full initial evaluation of the tenders in accordance with the award criterion or criteria and with the weighting fixed for them.
Admissibility of tenders.	187. (1) A tender shall be considered admissible where it has been submitted by a tenderer, who has not been excluded pursuant to Part VI and who meets the selection criteria, and whose tender is in conformity with the technical specifications without being irregular or unacceptable or unsuitable. (2) In particular, tenders which do not comply with the procurement documents, which were received late, where there is evidence of collusion or corruption, or which have been found by the contracting authority to be abnormally low, shall be considered as being irregular. In particular tenders submitted by tenderers that do not have the required qualifications, and tenders whose price exceeds the contracting authority's budget as determined and documented prior to the launching of the procurement procedure shall be considered as unacceptable. (3) A tender shall be considered not to be suitable where it is irrelevant to the contract, being manifestly incapable, without substantial changes, of meeting the contracting authority's needs and requirements as specified in the procurement documents. A request for participation shall be considered not to be suitable where the economic operator concerned is to be or may be excluded pursuant to Part VI or does not meet the selection criteria set out by the contracting authority pursuant to regulation 217.

188. (1) All tenderers that have submitted admissible tenders shall be invited simultaneously to participate in the electronic auction using, as of the specified date and time, the connections in accordance with the instructions set out in the invitation. The electronic auction may take place in a number of successive phases. The electronic auction shall not start sooner than two working days after the date on which invitations are sent out.

Invitation of admissible tenders.

(2) The invitation shall be accompanied by the outcome of a full evaluation of the relevant tender, carried out in accordance with the weighting provided for in regulation 239(7).

(3) The invitation shall also state the mathematical formula to be used in the electronic auction to determine the automatic re-rankings on the basis of the new prices and, or new values submitted. Except where the most economically advantageous offer is identified on the basis of price alone, that formula shall incorporate the weighting of all the criteria established to determine the most economically advantageous tender, as indicated in the notice used as a means of calling for competition or in other procurement documents. For that purpose, any ranges shall, however, be reduced beforehand to a specified value.

(4) Where variants are authorised, a separate formula shall be provided for each variant.

189. Throughout each phase of an electronic auction the authorities responsible for the tendering process shall instantaneously communicate to all tenderers at least sufficient information to enable them to ascertain their relative rankings at any moment. They may, where this has been previously indicated, communicate other information concerning other prices or values submitted. They may also at any time announce the number of participants in that phase of the auction. In no case, however, may they disclose the identities of the tenderers during any phase of an electronic auction.

Communication.

190. (1) The authorities responsible for the tendering process shall close an electronic auction in one or more of the following manners:

Closing.

- (a) at the previously indicated date and time;
- (b) when they receive no more new prices or new values which meet the requirements concerning minimum differences, provided that they have previously stated the time which they will allow to elapse after receiving the last submission before they close the electronic auction; or
- (c) when the previously indicated number of phases in the auction has been completed.

(2) Where the authorities responsible for the tendering process intend to close an electronic auction in accordance with sub-regulation (1)(c) possibly in combination with the arrangements laid down in sub-regulation (1)(b), the invitation to take part in the auction shall indicate the timetable for each phase of the auction.

(3) After closing an electronic auction the authorities responsible for the tendering process shall award the contract in accordance with the provisions of regulation 239 on the basis of the results of the electronic auction.

Part VI

Exclusion and Black Listing of Economic Operators

General Prohibition

Excluded or black listed economic operators.

191. (1) No economic operator or sub-contractor shall be given a public contract if he is subject to any of the exclusion or black listing grounds mentioned under this Part.

(2) If, during a procurement process, a sub-contractor is excluded or black listed, the authority responsible for the tendering process or the Director shall require that the economic operator replaces the excluded or black listed subcontractor.

(3) If the economic operator does not replace the sub-contractor within the time-frame given in writing by the authority responsible for the tendering process or Director, the tender of that economic operator shall be automatically excluded from the award.

Exclusion of Economic Operators

Exclusion on grounds of conviction.

192. (1) The authority responsible for the tendering process shall exclude an economic operator from participation in a procurement procedure where it has established or is otherwise made aware that such an economic operator has been the subject of a conviction by final judgment having the nature of a res judicata for one of the following reasons:

- (a) participation in a criminal organisation, as defined in Article 2 of Council Framework Decision 2008/841/JHA or an equivalent offence under Maltese law or as defined in the national law of the economic operator;
- (b) corruption, as defined in Article 3 of the Convention on the fight against corruption involving officials of the European Communities or officials of Member States of the European Union and Article 2(1) of Council Framework Decision 2003/568/JHA or an equivalent offence under Maltese law or as defined in the national law of the economic operator;
- (c) fraud within the meaning of Article 1 of the Convention on the protection of the European Communities' financial interests or an equivalent offence under Maltese law or as defined in the national law of the economic operator;
- (d) terrorist offences or offences linked to terrorist activities, as defined in Articles 1 and 3 of Council

Framework Decision 2002/475/JHA respectively, or inciting or aiding or abetting or attempting to commit an offence, as referred to in Article 4 of that Framework Decision or an equivalent offence under Maltese law or as defined in the national law of the economic operator;

- (e) money laundering or terrorist financing, as defined in Article 1 of Directive 2005/60/EC of the European Parliament and of the Council or an equivalent offence under Maltese law or as defined in the national law of the economic operator;
- (f) child labour and other forms of trafficking in human beings as defined in Article 2 of Directive 2011/36/EU of the European Parliament and of the Council or an equivalent offence under Maltese law or as defined in the national law of the economic operator.

(2) The exclusion of the economic operator shall also operate and apply where the person convicted by final judgment is a member of the administrative, management or supervisory body of that economic operator or has powers of representation, decision or control therein.

(3) Without prejudice to the possibility mentioned in regulation 195, the period of exclusion for the grounds identified under this regulation shall be of five years starting from the date when the judgment has become final.

193. (1) An economic operator shall likewise be excluded from participation in a procurement procedure where the authority responsible for the tendering process is aware that the economic operator is in breach of its obligations relating to the payment of taxes or social security contributions and where this has been established by a local or foreign judicial or administrative decision having final and binding effect.

Exclusion for failure to abide with obligations concerning taxes or social contributions.

(2) The authorities responsible for the tendering process are also entitled to exclude an economic operator from participation in a procurement procedure if they can demonstrate by any appropriate means that the economic operator is in breach of its obligations relating to the payment of taxes or social security contributions, even in the absence of a local or foreign judicial or administrative decision.

(3) The term 'appropriate means' under this regulation includes any certificate, declaration or documentation issued by a competent entity which demonstrate that the economic operator is in breach of its obligations relating to the payment of taxes and, or social security contributions.

(4) The exclusion mentioned under this regulation shall no longer apply if the economic operator fulfils his obligations by paying or by entering into a binding arrangement with a view to paying the taxes or social security contributions due, including, where applicable, any interest accrued or fines.

Other grounds of exclusion.

194. A contract shall also not be awarded to an economic operator who, during the procurement procedure for that contract:

- (a) is bankrupt or is the subject of insolvency or winding-up proceedings, where its assets are being administered by a liquidator or by the court, where it is in an arrangement with creditors, where its business activities are suspended or it is in any analogous situation arising from a similar procedure under national laws and regulations;
- (b) is subject to a conflict of interests as referred to under the definition in regulation 2 which cannot be effectively remedied by other less intrusive measures;
- (c) has been involved in the preparation of the procurement procedure, unless such an exclusion cannot be remedied by other, less intrusive measures.

Removal of exclusion.

195. (1) An economic operator that is in one of the situations referred to in regulations 192 and 194 may provide, in his offer or bid, evidence to the effect that he took sufficient measures to demonstrate his reliability despite the existence of a relevant ground for exclusion. If such evidence at evaluation stage is considered as sufficient by the authority responsible for the tendering process, the economic operator concerned shall not be excluded from the procurement procedure.

(2) The economic operator shall be deemed to have shown his reliability if he proves that he has paid or undertaken to pay compensation in respect of any damage caused by the criminal offence or misconduct, clarified the facts and circumstances in a comprehensive manner by actively collaborating with the investigating authorities and taken concrete technical, organisational and personnel measures that are appropriate to prevent further criminal offences or misconduct.

(3) The measures taken by the economic operators shall be evaluated taking into account the gravity and particular circumstances of the criminal offence or misconduct. Where the measures are considered to be insufficient, the economic operator shall receive a statement of the reasons for that decision.

(4) The economic operator shall not be entitled to make use of the possibility to remove the exclusion as provided in this regulation if the period of exclusion from participating in procurement award procedures has been established by a final judgment.

Exclusion at the evaluation stage.

196. The authority responsible for the tendering process shall exclude economic operators at any time during the procedure leading to the award of the contract when it transpires out that the economic operator is, in view of acts committed or omitted either before or during the procedure, in one of the situations referred to in regulations 192, 193 and 194.

Waiver.

197. On an exceptional basis only, the authority responsible for the tendering process may with the prior approval in writing of the Minister dispense from any exclusion mentioned under this Part for overriding reasons relating to the public interest.

198. Any economic operator who feels aggrieved by a decision to exclude him from participating in a procurement procedure may file an objection before the Public Contracts Review Board in the same manner as provided for in regulation 270.

Action to the excluded economic operator.

201. (1) Any economic operator who feels aggrieved by such a decision may file an objection before the Commercial Sanctions Tribunal as provided in regulation 205.

(2) In default of an objection by the economic operator the decision of the Director shall be final and the black listing period shall be effective for two years from the date of the decision. In the event of an objection, the decision to black list shall become final from the date when the objection has been finally decided by the Commercial Sanctions Tribunal or the Court of Appeal, as the case may be.

Defence.

202. (1) An economic operator may, before the Commercial Sanctions Tribunal, use as a defence against his black listing, the argument that he has taken measures that are sufficient to demonstrate his reliability despite the existence of a relevant ground for black listing. If such evidence is considered as sufficient, the economic operator concerned shall not be black listed from the procurement procedure.

(2) The economic operator shall prove that he has paid or undertaken to pay compensation in respect of any damage caused by the criminal offence or misconduct, clarified the facts and circumstances in a comprehensive manner by actively collaborating with the investigating authorities and taken concrete technical, organisational and personnel measures that are appropriate to prevent further criminal offences or misconduct.

(3) The measures taken by the economic operators shall be evaluated by the Commercial Sanctions Tribunal taking into account the gravity and particular circumstances of the criminal offence or misconduct. Where the Commercial Sanctions Tribunal shall deem the measures as insufficient, it will include the reasons for such a decision in its judgment.

Effects of black listing.

203. (1) An economic operator which has been black listed by a final judgment from participating in procurement procedures shall not be entitled to make use of the possibility provided for under regulation 202 during the period of exclusion resulting from that judgment.

(2) Once the economic operator has been black listed he shall be excluded from the award of any public contract or any contract, quotation or direct-contract for the period of his black listing.

Action before the Commercial Sanctions Tribunal.

204. The economic operator who has been informed by the Director that he will be black listed can file an appeal before the Commercial Sanctions Tribunal.

205. (1) The appeal shall be filed within ten days from the date in which the or registered letter or judicial letter identified under regulation 200 shall be notified to the appellant.

Procedure.
Amended by:
L.N. 26 of 2018.

(2) The appeal shall be valid only if accompanied by a deposit of four hundred euro (€400).

(4) The appeal shall also be affixed to the notice-board of the Tribunal.

(5) The Director may, within ten days from the day on which the appeal is notified to him, file a written reply. The reply shall also be affixed to the notice-board of the Tribunal.

(6) The Director shall forward to the chairman of the Tribunal all documentation pertaining to the black listing of the appellant.

(7) The tribunal shall then set a date for the oral hearing.

(8) When the oral hearing is concluded, the Tribunal, if it does not deliver the decision on the same day, shall reserve decision for the earliest possible date to be fixed for the purpose, but not later than six weeks from the day in which the written pleadings are deemed to be closed:

Provided that for serious and justified reasons expressed in writing by means of an order notified to all the parties, the Tribunal may postpone the judgment for a later period.

(9) The secretary of the board shall keep a record of the grounds of each adjournment and of everything done in each sitting.

Part VII

Choice of participants and award of contracts

Selection Criteria

Selection criteria.

217. (1) Selection criteria may relate to:

- (a) suitability to pursue the professional activity;
- (b) economic and financial standing;
- (c) technical and professional ability.

(2) Contracting authorities may only impose criteria referred to under this regulation on economic operators as requirements for participation. Any of the requirements imposed shall be limited to those that are appropriate to ensure that a candidate or tenderer has the legal and financial capacities and the technical and professional abilities to perform the contract to be awarded. All requirements shall be related and proportionate to the subject-matter of the contract.

(3) As to the suitability to pursue the professional activity, contracting authorities may require economic operators to be enrolled in one of the professional or trade registers, as described in Annex XI of Directive 2014/24/EU.

(4) In procurement procedures for services, in so far as economic operators have to possess a particular authorisation or to be members of a particular organisation in order to be able to perform in their country of origin the service concerned, the contracting authority may require them to prove that they hold such authorisation or membership.

Economic and financial standing.

218. As to economic and financial standing, contracting authorities may impose requirements ensuring that economic operators possess the necessary economic and financial capacity to perform the contract. For that purpose, contracting authorities may require, in particular, that economic operators have a certain minimum yearly turnover, including a certain minimum turnover in the area covered by the contract. In addition, contracting authorities may require that economic operators provide information on their annual accounts showing the ratios, for instance, between assets and liabilities. They may also require an appropriate level of professional risk indemnity insurance.

Minimum yearly turnover.

219. (1) The minimum yearly turnover that economic operators are required to have shall not exceed two times the estimated contract value, except in duly justified cases such as relating to the special risks attached to the nature of the works, services or supplies. The contracting authority shall indicate the main reasons for such a requirement in the procurement documents or the individual report referred to in regulations 113 or 241, as the case may be.

(2) The ratio, for instance, between assets and liabilities may be taken into consideration where the contracting authority specifies the methods and criteria for such consideration in the procurement documents. Such methods and criteria shall be transparent, objective and non-discriminatory.

220. Where a procurement document including a tender is divided into lots, regulations 217 to 224 shall apply in relation to each individual lot. However, the contracting authority may set the minimum yearly turnover that economic operators are required to have by reference to groups of lots in the event that the successful tenderer is awarded several lots to be executed at the same time.

Contract divided in lots.

221. Where contracts based on a framework agreement are to be awarded following a reopening of competition, the maximum yearly turnover requirement referred to in regulation 219(1) shall be calculated on the basis of the expected maximum size of specific contracts that will be performed at the same time, or, where it is not known, on the basis of the estimated value of the framework agreement. In the case of dynamic purchasing systems, the maximum yearly turnover requirement referred to in regulation 219(1) shall be calculated on the basis of the expected maximum size of specific contracts to be awarded under that system.

Framework agreements.

222. (1) As to technical and professional ability, contracting authorities may impose requirements ensuring that economic operators possess the necessary human and technical resources and experience to perform the contract to an appropriate quality standard.

Technical and professional ability.

(2) Contracting authorities may require, in particular, that economic operators have a sufficient level of experience demonstrated by suitable references from contracts performed in the past. A contracting authority may assume that an economic operator does not possess the required professional abilities where the contracting authority has established that the economic operator has conflicting interests which may negatively affect the performance of the contract.

223. In procurement procedures for supplies requiring siting or installation work, services or works, the professional ability of economic operators to provide the service or to execute the installation or the work may be evaluated with regard to their skills, efficiency, experience and reliability.

Supplies requiring siting or installation work, services or works.

224. Contracting authorities shall indicate the required conditions of participation which may be expressed as minimum levels of ability, together with the appropriate means of proof, in the contract notice or in the invitation to confirm interest.

Conditions must be specified.

225. (1) At the time of submission of requests to participate or of tenders, both having an estimated value which falls under regulation 9(1)(b), contracting authorities shall accept the European Single Procurement Document (ESPD), consisting of an updated self-declaration as preliminary evidence in replacement of certificates issued by public authorities or third parties confirming that the relevant economic operator fulfils the following conditions:

- (a) it is not in one of the situations referred to in Part VI in which economic operators shall or may be excluded;
- (b) it meets the relevant selection criteria that have been set out pursuant to regulation 217;
- (c) where applicable, it fulfils the objective rules and criteria that have been set out pursuant to regulation 237.

(2) Where the economic operator relies on the capacities of other entities pursuant to regulation 235, the ESPD shall also contain the information referred to in sub-regulation (1)(a) in respect of such entities.

Content of the ESPD.

226. (1) The ESPD shall consist of a formal statement by the economic operator that the relevant ground for exclusion does not apply and, or that the relevant selection criterion is fulfilled and shall provide the relevant information as required by the contracting authority. The ESPD shall further identify the public authority or third party responsible for establishing the supporting documents and contain a formal statement to the effect that the economic operator will be able, upon request and without delay, to provide those supporting documents.

(2) Where the contracting authority can obtain the supporting documents directly by accessing a database pursuant to regulation 229(3), the ESPD shall also contain the information required for this purpose, such as the internet address of the database, any identification data and, where applicable, the necessary declaration of consent.

Re-use.

227. Economic operators may re-use an ESPD which has already been used in a previous procurement procedure, provided that they confirm that the information contained therein continues to be correct.

Form.

228. The ESPD shall be drawn up on the basis of a standard form and shall be provided exclusively in electronic form.

Further documents.

229. (1) A contracting authority may ask tenderers and candidates at any moment during the procedure to submit all or part of the supporting documents where this is necessary to ensure the proper conduct of the procedure.

(2) Before awarding the contract, the contracting authority shall, except in respect of contracts based on framework agreements where such contracts are concluded in accordance with regulations 172 and 173, require the tenderer to which it has decided to award the contract to submit up-to-date supporting documents in accordance with regulations 230, 231 and 232 as applicable and, where appropriate, regulation 235. The contracting authority may invite economic operators to supplement or clarify the certificates received pursuant to regulations 230 to 234.

(3) Notwithstanding the provisions of sub-regulations (1) and (2), economic operators shall not be required to submit supporting documents or other documentary evidence where and in so far as the contracting authority has the possibility of obtaining the certificates or the relevant information directly by accessing a national database in any Member State that is available free of charge, such as a national procurement register, a virtual company dossier, an electronic document storage system or a pre-qualification system.

(4) Notwithstanding the provisions of sub-regulations (1) and (2), economic operators shall not be required to submit supporting documents where the contracting authority, having awarded the contract or concluded the framework agreement, already possesses these documents.

230. (1) Contracting authorities may require the certificates, statements and other means of proof referred to in this regulation as well as regulations 231 and 232 as evidence for the absence of grounds for exclusion as referred to in Part VI and for the fulfilment of the selection criteria in accordance with regulation 217.

Means of proof related to the exclusion and black listing of economic operators.

(2) Contracting authorities shall not require means of proof other than those referred to in this regulation and regulations 231, 232 and 234. In respect of regulation 235, economic operators may rely on any appropriate means to prove to the contracting authority that they will have the necessary resources at their disposal.

(3) Contracting authorities shall accept the following as sufficient evidence that none of the cases specified in regulations 192, 193, 194 and 199 apply to the economic operator:

- (a) as regards regulation 192, the production of an extract from the relevant register, such as judicial records or, failing that, of an equivalent document issued by a competent judicial or administrative authority in the Member State or country of origin or the country where the economic operator is established showing that those requirements have been met;
- (b) as regards regulations 193 and 194(a), a certificate issued by the competent authority in the Member State or country concerned.

(4) Where the Member State or country in question does not issue the documents or certificates referred to in sub-regulation (3), or where these do not cover all the cases specified in regulations 192, 193 and 194(a), they may be replaced by a declaration on oath or, in Member States or countries where there is no provision for declarations on oath, by a solemn declaration made by the person concerned before a competent judicial or administrative authority, a notary or a competent professional or trade body, in the Member State or country of origin or in the Member State or country where the economic operator is established.

(5) The Director shall, where relevant, provide an official declaration stating that the documents or certificates referred to in this sub-regulation are not issued or that they do not cover all the cases specified in regulations 192, 193 and 194(a). Such official declarations shall be made available through the online repository of certificates (e-Certis).

Means of proof for financial standing.

231. (1) Proof of the economic operator's economic and financial standing may, as a general rule, be provided by one or more of the following:

- (a) appropriate statements from banks or, where appropriate, evidence of relevant professional risk indemnity insurance;
- (b) the presentation of financial statements or extracts from the financial statements, where publication of financial statements is required under the law of the country in which the economic operator is established;
- (c) a statement of the undertaking's overall turnover and, where appropriate, of turnover in the area covered by the contract for a maximum of the last three financial years available, depending on the date on which the undertaking was set up or the economic operator started trading, as far as the information on these turnovers is available.

(2) Where, for any valid reason, the economic operator is unable to provide the references requested by the contracting authority, it may prove its economic and financial standing by any other document which the contracting authority considers appropriate.

Means of proof for technical abilities.

232. Evidence of the economic operators' technical abilities may be provided by one or more of the following means, in accordance with the nature, quantity or importance, and use of the works, supplies or services:

- (a) by means of the following lists:
 - (i) a list of the works carried out, at most, over the past five years, accompanied by certificates of satisfactory execution and outcome for the most important works; where necessary in order to ensure an adequate level of competition, contracting authorities may indicate that evidence of relevant works carried out more than five years before will be taken into account;
 - (ii) a list of the principal deliveries effected or the main services provided over, at the most, the past three years, with the sums, dates and recipients, whether public or private, involved. Where necessary in order to ensure an adequate level of competition, contracting authorities may indicate that evidence of relevant supplies or services delivered or performed more than three years before will be taken into account;

- (b) an indication of the technicians or technical bodies involved, whether or not belonging directly to the economic operator's undertaking, especially those responsible for quality control and, in the case of public works contracts, those upon whom the contractor can call in order to carry out the work;
- (c) a description of the technical facilities and measures used by the economic operator for ensuring quality and the undertaking's study and research facilities;
- (d) an indication of the supply chain management and tracking systems that the economic operator will be able to apply when performing the contract;
- (e) where the products or services to be supplied are complex or, exceptionally, are required for a special purpose, a check carried out by the contracting authorities or on their behalf by a competent official body of the country in which the supplier or service provider is established, subject to that body's agreement, on the production capacities of the supplier or the technical capacity of the service provider and, where necessary, on the means of study and research which are available to it and the quality control measures it will operate;
- (f) the educational and professional qualifications of the service provider or contractor or those of the undertaking's managerial staff, provided that they are not evaluated as an award criterion;
- (g) an indication of the environmental management measures that the economic operator will be able to apply when performing the contract;
- (h) a statement of the average annual manpower of the service provider or contractor and the number of managerial staff for the last three years;
- (i) a statement of the tools, plant or technical equipment available to the service provider or contractor for carrying out the contract;
- (j) an indication of the proportion of the contract which the economic operator intends possibly to subcontract;
- (k) with regard to the products to be supplied:
 - (i) samples, descriptions or photographs, the authenticity of which must be certified where the contracting authority so requests;
 - (ii) certificates drawn up by official quality control institutes or agencies of recognised competence attesting the conformity of products clearly identified by references to technical specifications or standards.

233. (1) With a view to facilitating cross-border tendering, the Government of Malta shall ensure that the information concerning certificates and other forms of documentary evidence introduced in

Online repository of certificates (e-Certis).

e-Certis established by the Commission is constantly kept up-to-date.

(2) Contracting authorities shall have recourse to e-Certis and shall require primarily such types of certificates or forms of documentary evidence that are covered by e-Certis.

Quality assurance standards and environmental management standards.

234. (1) Contracting authorities shall, where they require the production of certificates drawn up by independent bodies attesting that the economic operator complies with certain quality assurance standards, including on accessibility for disabled persons, refer to quality assurance systems based on the relevant European standards series certified by accredited bodies. They shall recognise equivalent certificates from bodies established in other Member States. They shall also accept other evidence of equivalent quality assurance measures where the economic operator concerned had no possibility of obtaining such certificates within the relevant time limits for reasons that are not attributable to that economic operator provided that the economic operator proves that the proposed quality assurance measures comply with the required quality assurance standards.

(2) Where contracting authorities require the production of certificates drawn up by independent bodies attesting that the economic operator complies with certain environmental management systems or standards, they shall refer to the Eco-Management and Audit Scheme (EMAS) of the Union or to other environmental management systems as recognised in accordance with Article 45 of Regulation (EC) No 1221/2009 or other environmental management standards based on the relevant European or international standards by accredited bodies. They shall recognise equivalent certificates from bodies established in other Member States.

(3) Where an economic operator had demonstrably no access to the certificates mentioned in sub-regulation (2), or no possibility of obtaining them within the relevant time limits for reasons that are not attributable to that economic operator, the contracting authority shall also accept other evidence of environmental management measures, provided that the economic operator proves that these measures are equivalent to those required under the applicable environmental management system or standard.

Reliance on the capacities of other entities.

235. (1) With regard to criteria relating to economic and financial standing as set out pursuant to regulations 218 to 221, and to criteria relating to technical and professional ability as set out pursuant to regulations 222 and 223, an economic operator may, where appropriate and for a particular contract, rely on the capacities of other entities, regardless of the legal nature of the links which it has with them. With regard to criteria relating to the educational and professional qualifications as set out in regulation 232(f), or to the relevant professional experience, economic operators may however only rely on the capacities of other entities where the latter will perform the works or services for which these capacities are required. Where an economic operator wants to rely on the capacities of other entities, it shall prove to the contracting authority that it will have at its disposal the resources necessary, for example, by producing a commitment by those entities to that effect.

(2) The contracting authority shall, in accordance with regulations 225 to 233, verify whether the entities on whose capacity the economic operator intends to rely, fulfils the relevant selection criteria and whether he falls under any ground established under Part VI. The contracting authority shall require that the economic operator replaces an entity which does not meet a relevant selection criterion, or in respect of which there are grounds for exclusion or has been black listed under Part VI.

(3) Where an economic operator relies on the capacities of other entities with regard to criteria relating to economic and financial standing, the contracting authority may require that the economic operator and those entities be jointly liable for the execution of the contract.

(4) Under the same conditions, a group of economic operators as referred to in regulation 58 may rely on the capacities of participants in the group or of other entities.

(5) In the case of works contracts, service contracts and siting or installation operations in the context of a supply contract, contracting authorities may require that certain critical tasks be performed directly by the tenderer itself or, where the tender is submitted by a group of economic operators as referred to in regulation 58, by a participant in that group.

236. The Minister shall have the authority to establish regulations for drawing up of official lists of approved economic operators and certification by bodies established under public or private law. Official lists.

Reduction of numbers of candidates, tenders and solutions

237. (1) In restricted procedures, competitive procedures with negotiation, competitive dialogue procedures and innovation partnerships, with an estimated value which falls under regulation 9(1)(b), contracting authorities may limit the number of candidates meeting the selection criteria that they will invite to tender or to conduct a dialogue, provided the minimum number, in accordance with sub-regulation (2), of qualified candidates is available. Reduction of the number of otherwise qualified candidates to be invited to participate.

(2) The contracting authorities shall indicate, in the contract notice or in the invitation to confirm interest, the objective and non-discriminatory criteria or rules they intend to apply, the minimum number of candidates they intend to invite and, where appropriate, the maximum number.

(3) In the restricted procedure the minimum number of candidates shall be five. In the competitive procedure with negotiation, in the competitive dialogue procedure and in the innovation partnership the minimum number of candidates shall be three. In any event the number of candidates invited shall be sufficient to ensure genuine competition.

(4) The contracting authorities shall invite a number of candidates at least equal to the minimum number. However, where the number of candidates meeting the selection criteria and the minimum levels of ability as referred to in regulation 224 is below the minimum number, the contracting authority may continue the procedure by inviting the candidates with the required capabilities. In the context of the same procedure, the contracting authority shall not include economic operators that did not request to participate, or candidates that do not have the required capabilities.

Reduction of the number of tenders and solutions.

238. Where contracting authorities exercise the option of reducing the number of tenders to be negotiated as provided for in regulation 127(4) or of solutions to be discussed as provided for in regulation 146, they shall do so by applying the award criteria stated in the procurement documents. In the final stage, the number arrived at shall make for genuine competition in so far as there are enough tenders, solutions or qualified candidates.

Award of Contract

Award criteria.

239. (1) Without prejudice to regulations or administrative provisions concerning the price of certain supplies or the remuneration of certain services, contracting authorities shall base the award of public contracts on the most economically advantageous tender.

(2) The most economically advantageous tender from the point of view of the contracting authority shall be identified on the basis of the price or cost, using a cost-effectiveness approach, such as life-cycle costing in accordance with regulation 240, and may include the best price-quality ratio, which shall be assessed on the basis of criteria, including qualitative, environmental and, or social aspects, linked to the subject-matter of the public contract in question. Such criteria may comprise, for instance:

- (a) quality, including technical merit, aesthetic and functional characteristics, accessibility, design for all users, social, environmental and innovative characteristics and trading and its conditions;
- (b) organisation, qualification and experience of staff assigned to performing the contract, where the quality of the staff assigned can have a significant impact on the level of performance of the contract; or
- (c) after-sales service and technical assistance, delivery conditions such as delivery date, delivery process and delivery period or period of completion.

(3) The cost element may also take the form of a fixed price or cost on the basis of which economic operators will compete on quality criteria only.

(4) Award criteria shall be considered to be linked to the subject-matter of the public contract where they relate to the works, supplies or services to be provided under that contract in any respect and at any stage of their life cycle, including factors involved in:

- (a) the specific process of production, provision or trading of those works, supplies or services; or
- (b) a specific process for another stage of their life cycle.

(5) Award criteria shall be considered to be linked to the subject-matter of the public contract even where the factors established in sub-regulation (4) do not form part of their material substance.

(6) Award criteria shall not have the effect of conferring an unrestricted freedom of choice on the contracting authority. They shall ensure the possibility of effective competition and shall be accompanied by specifications that allow the information provided by the tenderers to be effectively verified in order to assess how well the tenders meet the award criteria. In case of doubt, contracting authorities shall verify effectively the accuracy of the information and proof provided by the tenderers.

(7) The contracting authority shall specify, in the procurement documents, the relative weighting which it gives to each of the criteria chosen to determine the most economically advantageous tender, except where this is identified on the basis of price alone.

(8) Those weightings may be expressed by providing for a range with an appropriate maximum spread.

(9) Where weighting is not possible for objective reasons, the contracting authority shall indicate the criteria in decreasing order of importance.

240. (1) Life-cycle costing shall to the extent relevant cover parts or all of the following costs over the life cycle of a product, service or works: Life-cycle costing.

- (a) costs, borne by the contracting authority or other users, such as:
 - (i) costs relating to acquisition;
 - (ii) costs of use, such as consumption of energy and other resources;
 - (iii) maintenance costs;
 - (iv) end of life costs, such as collection and recycling costs;
- (b) costs imputed to environmental externalities linked to the product, service or works during its life cycle, provided their monetary value can be determined and verified; such costs may include the cost of emissions of greenhouse gases and of other pollutant emissions and other climate change mitigation costs.

(2) Where contracting authorities assess the costs using a life-cycle costing approach, they shall indicate in the procurement documents the data to be provided by the tenderers and the method which the contracting authority will use to determine the life-cycle costs on the basis of those data.

(3) The method used for the assessment of costs imputed to environmental externalities shall fulfil all of the following conditions:

- (a) it is based on objectively verifiable and non-discriminatory criteria. In particular, where it has not been established for repeated or continuous application, it shall not unduly favour or disadvantage certain economic operators;
- (b) it is accessible to all interested parties;
- (c) the data required can be provided with reasonable effort by normally diligent economic operators, including economic operators from third countries party to the GPA or other international agreements by which the Union is bound.

(4) Whenever a common method for the calculation of life-cycle costs has been made mandatory by a legislative act of the Union, that common method shall be applied for the assessment of life-cycle costs.

(5) A list of the common methods of calculation mentioned in sub-regulation (4) is established in Annex XIII of Directive 2014/24/EU of the European Parliament and of the Council of 26 February 2014 on public procurement.

Individual reports on procedures for the award of contracts.

241. (1) This regulation shall apply to every contract or framework agreement covered by these regulations, and every time a dynamic purchasing system is established, where the estimated value of such procedures falls under regulation 9(1)(b).

(2) For every contract or framework agreement covered by these regulations, and every time a dynamic purchasing system is established, contracting authorities shall draw up a written report which shall include at least the following:

- (a) the name and address of the contracting authority, the subject-matter and value of the contract, framework agreement or dynamic purchasing system;
- (b) where applicable, the results of the qualitative selection and, or reduction of numbers pursuant to regulations 237 and 238, namely:
 - (i) the names of the selected candidates or tenderers and the reasons for their selection;
 - (ii) the names of the candidates or tenderers rejected and the reasons for their rejection;
- (c) the reasons for the rejection of tenders found to be abnormally low;
- (d) the name of the successful tenderer and the reasons why its tender was selected and, where known, the share of the contract or framework agreement which the successful tenderer intends to subcontract to third parties; and, where known at this point in time, the names of the main contractor's subcontractors, if any;

- (e) for competitive procedures with negotiations and competitive dialogues, the circumstances as laid down in regulations 123 to 127 and 140 to 149 which justify the use of those procedures;
- (f) for negotiated procedures without prior publication, the circumstances referred to in regulations 150 to 156 which justify the use of this procedure;
- (g) where applicable, the reasons why the contracting authority has decided not to award a contract or framework agreement or to establish a dynamic purchasing system;
- (h) where applicable, the reasons why other means of communication than electronic means have been used for the submission of tenders;
- (i) where applicable, conflicts of interests detected and subsequent measures taken.

(3) This report shall not be required in respect of contracts based on framework agreements where these are concluded in accordance with regulations 171, 172 or 173(1)(a).

(4) To the extent that the contract award notice drawn up pursuant to regulation 49 or regulation 163(2) contains the information required in this regulation, contracting authorities may refer to that notice.

(5) Contracting authorities shall document the progress of all procurement procedures, whether or not those are conducted by electronic means. To that end, they shall ensure that they keep sufficient documentation to justify decisions taken in all stages of the procurement procedure, such as documentation on communications with economic operators and internal deliberations, preparation of the procurement documents, dialogue or negotiation if any, selection and award of the contract. The documentation shall be kept for a period of at least three years from the date of award of the contract.

(6) The report, or its main elements, shall be communicated to the Commission or the competent authorities, bodies or structures where they so request.

242. (1) The authority responsible for the tendering process shall inform each candidate and tenderer of decisions reached concerning the conclusion of a framework agreement, the award of the contract or admittance to a dynamic purchasing system, including the grounds for any decision not to conclude a framework agreement, not to award a contract for which there has been a call for competition, to recommence the procedure or not to implement a dynamic purchasing system.

Informing candidates and tenderers.

(2) On request from the candidate or tenderer concerned, the authority responsible for the tendering process shall as quickly as possible, and in any event within fifteen days from receipt of a written request, inform:

- (a) any unsuccessful candidate of the reasons for the rejection of its request to participate;

- (b) any unsuccessful tenderer of the reasons for the rejection of its tender, including, for the cases referred to in regulation 53(9) and (10), the reasons for its decision of non-equivalence or its decision that the works, supplies or services do not meet the performance or functional requirements;
- (c) any tenderer that has made an admissible tender of the characteristics and relative advantages of the tender selected as well as the name of the successful tenderer or the parties to the framework agreement;
- (d) any tenderer that has made an admissible tender of the conduct and progress of negotiations and dialogue with tenderers;
- (e) any unsuccessful tenderer of his right to appeal a decision taken pursuant sub-regulation (1).

(3) Contracting authorities may decide to withhold certain information referred to in sub-regulations (1) and (2), regarding the contract award, the conclusion of framework agreements or admittance to a dynamic purchasing system, where the release of such information would impede law enforcement or would otherwise be contrary to the public interest, would prejudice the legitimate commercial interests of a particular economic operator, whether public or private, or might prejudice fair competition between economic operators.

Abnormally Low Tenders and Variant Solutions

Abnormally low tenders.
Amended by:
L.N. 196 of 2020.

243. (1) Contracting authorities shall require economic operators to explain the price or costs proposed in the tender where tenders appear to be abnormally low in relation to the works, supplies or services.

(2) The explanations may in particular relate to:

- (a) the economics of the manufacturing process, of the services provided or of the construction method;
- (b) the technical solutions chosen or any exceptionally favourable conditions available to the tenderer for the supply of the products or services or for the execution of the work;
- (c) the originality of the work, supplies or services proposed by the tenderer;
- (d) compliance with obligations established in regulations 13(m) and 16(k);
- (e) compliance with obligations referred to in regulation 60;
- (f) the possibility of the tenderer obtaining State aid.

(3) Failure by the economic operator to send his explanations within the written time-frame imposed by the contracting authority, shall be deemed as acceptance from the economic operator that his tender is abnormally low.

(4) The contracting authority shall assess the information provided by consulting the tenderer. It may only reject the tender where the evidence supplied does not satisfactorily account for the low level of price or costs proposed, taking into account the elements referred to in sub-regulation (2).

(5) Contracting authorities shall reject the tender, where they have established that the tender is abnormally low because it does not comply with applicable obligations referred to in regulation 13(m) and 16(k).

(6) Where a contracting authority establishes that a tender is abnormally low because the tenderer has obtained State aid, the tender may be rejected on that ground alone only after consultation with the tenderer where the latter is unable to prove, within a sufficient time limit fixed by the contracting authority, that the aid in question was compatible with the internal market within the meaning of Article 107 of the TFEU. Where the contracting authority rejects a tender in those circumstances, it shall inform the Commission thereof.

244. (1) For tenders having an estimated value which falls under the provisions of regulation 9(1)(b), contracting authorities may authorise or require tenderers to submit variants. They shall indicate in the contract notice whether or not they authorise or require variants. Variants shall not be authorised without such indication and shall be linked to the subject-matter of the contract.

Variants.

(2) Contracting authorities authorising or requiring variants shall state in the procurement documents the minimum requirements to be met by the variants and any specific requirements for their presentation, in particular whether variants may be submitted only where a tender, which is not a variant, has also been submitted. They shall also ensure that the chosen award criteria can be applied to variants meeting those minimum requirements as well as to conforming tenders which are not variants.

(3) Only variants meeting the minimum requirements laid down by the contracting authorities shall be taken into consideration.

(4) In procedures for awarding public supply or service contracts, contracting authorities that have authorised or required variants shall not reject a variant on the sole ground that it would, where successful, lead to either a service contract rather than a public supply contract or a supply contract rather than a public service contract.

Part VIII

Performance of Contracts

Contract Performance and Modifications

245. Contracting authorities may lay down conditions relating to the performance of a contract, provided that they are linked to the subject-matter of the contract within the meaning of regulation 239(4) and (5) and indicated in the call for competition or in the procurement documents. Those conditions may include economic, innovation-related, environmental, social or employment-related considerations.

Conditions for performance of contracts.

Modification of contracts during their term.

246. (1) For tenders with an estimated value which falls within regulation 9(1)(b) and upon the prior approval of the Director a contracting authority can order modifications to the contract or framework agreement without a new procurement procedure, in any of the following cases:

- (a) where the modifications, irrespective of their monetary value, have been provided for in the initial procurement documents in clear, precise and unequivocal review clauses, which may include price revision clauses, or options. Such clauses shall state the scope and nature of possible modifications or options as well as the conditions under which they may be used. They shall not provide for modifications or options that would alter the overall nature of the contract or the framework agreement;
- (b) for additional works, services or supplies by the original contractor that have become necessary and that were not included in the initial procurement where a change of contractor:
 - (i) cannot be made for economic or technical reasons such as requirements of interchangeability or interoperability with existing equipment, services or installations procured under the initial procurement; and
 - (ii) would cause significant inconvenience or substantial duplication of costs for the contracting authority:

Provided that, any increase in price shall not exceed 50% of the value of the original contract;

- (c) where all of the following conditions are fulfilled:
 - (i) the need for modification has been brought about by circumstances which a diligent contracting authority could not foresee;
 - (ii) the modification does not alter the overall nature of the contract;
 - (iii) any increase in price is not higher than 50% of the value of the original contract or framework agreement;
- (d) where a new contractor replaces the one to which the contracting authority had initially awarded the contract as a consequence of either:
 - (i) an unequivocal review clause or option in conformity with paragraph (a); or
 - (ii) universal or partial succession into the position of the initial contractor, following corporate restructuring, including takeover, merger,

- acquisition or insolvency, of another economic operator that fulfils the criteria for qualitative selection initially established provided that this does not entail other substantial modifications to the contract and is not aimed at circumventing the application of these regulations; or
- (iii) in the event that the contracting authority itself assumes the main contractor's obligations towards its subcontractors;
 - (e) where the modifications, irrespective of their value, are not substantial within the meaning of sub-regulation (5).

(2) The Director or the contracting authorities having modified a contract in the cases set out under paragraphs (b) and (c) of sub-regulation (1) shall publish a notice to that effect in the Official Journal of the European Union. Such notice shall contain the information set out in Schedule 9 part G and shall be published in accordance with regulation 43.

(3) Without any need to verify whether the conditions set out under paragraphs (a) to (d) of sub-regulation (5) are met or ask for the approval of the Director, contracts may equally be modified without a new procurement procedure in accordance with these regulations being necessary where the value of the modification is below both of the following values:

- (a) the thresholds set out in Schedule 5; and
- (b) 10% of the initial contract value for service and supply contracts and 15% of the initial contract value for works contracts:

Provided that the modification may not alter the overall nature of the contract or framework agreement. Where several successive modifications are made, the value shall be assessed on the basis of the net cumulative value of the successive modifications.

(4) For the purpose of the calculation of the price mentioned in sub-regulations (3) and (1)(b) and (c), the updated price shall be the reference value when the contract includes an indexation clause.

(5) A modification of a contract or a framework agreement during its term shall be considered to be substantial within the meaning of sub-regulation (1)(e), where it renders the contract or the framework agreement materially different in character from the one initially concluded. In any event, without prejudice to the provisions of sub-regulations (1) and (3), a modification shall be considered to be substantial where one or more of the following conditions is met:

- (a) the modification introduces conditions which, had they been part of the initial procurement procedure, would have allowed for the admission of candidates other than those initially selected or for the acceptance of a tender other than that originally accepted or would have attracted additional participants in the procurement procedure;

- (b) the modification changes the economic balance of the contract or the framework agreement in favour of the contractor in a manner which was not provided for in the initial contract or framework agreement;
- (c) the modification extends the scope of the contract or framework agreement considerably;
- (d) where a new contractor replaces the one to which the contracting authority had initially awarded the contract in cases other than those provided for under sub-regulation (1)(d).

(6) A new procurement procedure in accordance with these regulations shall be required for other modifications of the provisions of a public contract or a framework agreement during its term than those provided for under sub-regulation (1) and (3).

Approval of modifications.

247. (1) When a modification, repetition of works or services or additional deliveries are requested of a tender with an estimated value which falls under regulation 9(1)(b) and which cumulatively are to exceed the amounts established under Schedule 5 and also the 10% of the initial contract value for contracts or services and supplies or exceed the 15% of the initial contract value for works as the case may be, the contracting authority shall seek the approval of the Director which shall precede the commencement of the modification.

(2) In exceptional circumstances where the urgent nature of the modification to be carried out is such that the contracting authority cannot request the approval of the Director provided for under sub-regulation (1), the contracting authority may proceed with the modification subject that it adheres to the conditions mentioned in these regulations and acquires from the Director at least a preliminary permission.

(3) The contracting authority shall, within a time-frame specified by the Director, furnish the latter with all the relevant information as indicated in regulation 248 and failure to do so will lead to the automatic revocation of the preliminary permission as well as to the consequences mentioned in these regulations.

(4) Following the submission of the request in terms of regulation 248, the Director will review the information submitted and shall give his approval only if the modification carried out respects the conditions in regulation 246.

Form of request for modification.

248. (1) Requests for modifications of a tender with an estimated value which falls under regulation 9(1)(b) shall be submitted to the Director only by contracting authorities.

(2) In its request for approval the contracting authority shall provide the following:

- (a) the reasons which brought about the need for this modification;
- (b) the effect on the total cost of the tender and any effect

- on the recurrent expenditure that will ensue;
- (c) the time-frame expected for the execution of the modification;
 - (d) the written consent of the contractor to carry out the modification;
 - (e) the legal basis for such a request whether it is being made under regulation 246 or regulations 151, 152, 153 or 154.

249. In granting or refusing such a request for modification, the Director shall assess whether the request is one that is allowed under these regulations. The Director shall establish under which regulation this modification is being approved and where possible he must determine the procedure to be followed in future by the contracting authority in order to avoid the necessity of modifications.

Decision of the Director.

250. The Director is to keep a full record of modification requests, including the name of the contractor involved and details of the documents specified in regulation 248.

Record of the modifications.

251. When a modification is carried out without seeking the prior approval of the Director, the Director cannot be requested to give a retroeffective approval of the modification and thus shall abstain from taking any cognisance of it. The responsibility of this unapproved modification shall vest in the head of that contracting authority in accordance with the Fiscal Responsibility Act.

Modification without approval.

Cap. 534.

252. If the Director refuses to give his approval for a request for modification, the contracting authority shall execute the contract as issued in the procurement documents:

Refusal by the Director.

Provided that where this is not possible the contract is to be terminated and a fresh procurement process be carried out in line with what is established under these regulations.

253. The decision of the Director relating to the refusal of a modification is final and cannot be contested by the contracting authority in a court or tribunal.

Decision of the Director is final.

254. Any modification carried out against the expressed refusal of the Director shall be deemed to be founded on an unlawful consideration and the contractor shall have no right for compensation with respect to that modification unless he shows that he was unaware of the refusal of the Director.

Unlawful modifications.

255. Following a request by the Director, the Attorney General on behalf of the Government may institute civil proceedings in a court of law for the restoration of payments received by a contractor in bad faith in relation to modifications which have been prohibited by the Director. Such action shall not be subject to any prescriptive period.

Action to recoup payments.

256. A contractor shall desist from executing a modification which requires the approval of the Director unless the contracting authority provides him with a written confirmation of the said approval. If the contractor carries out the modification nonetheless, he shall be deemed to have acted in bad faith and thus he shall not be entitled to any compensation with respect to that modification, so long as such modification was not approved by the Director or when the contracting authority proceeded with the modification without seeking the prior approval of the Director. Any payments received by the contractor in this regard may be restored in the same manner as provided in regulation 255.

Financial rate of the modification.

257. When approving a modification, the Director must indicate the financial rate or any sum which should be paid by the contracting authority in respect of that modification and the time-frame when such modification should be executed.

Disputes on modifications.

258. (1) Disputes between the contracting authority and the contractor on whether a particular task forms part of the contract or else constitutes a modification to the original contract shall not delay or suspend the continuation of contract, however the contractor shall have the right to assert his claim against the contracting authority to receive additional payment for that task if it results that it does not form part of the original contract.

(2) Such action for additional compensation by the contractor shall be barred by prescription on the lapse of two years to be reckoned from the day when the contractor becomes aware or could have become aware of that task.

Increase in prices.

259. A contractor cannot claim any increase whatsoever in price of commodities to be used in a public contract unless otherwise provided in the procurement document.

Entities listed in Schedule 3 and authorities listed under Schedule 16. Amended by: L.N. 233 of 2017.

260. (1) Contracting authorities falling under Schedule 3 shall obtain the prior approval of the head of their contracting authority instead of that of the Director when carrying out a modification.

(2) Contracting authorities falling under Schedule 16 must, as long as the call for tenders has been published by the Ministerial Procurement Unit, obtain the prior approval of, or the preliminary permission from, their Permanent Secretary instead of that of the Director when carrying out modifications.

Termination of Contacts

Termination of contracts.

261. (1) Contracting authorities inter alia can terminate any contract during its term, where:

- (a) the contract has been subject to a substantial modification, which would have required a new procurement procedure pursuant to regulation 246;
- (b) the contractor has, at the time of contract award, been in one of the situations referred to in regulation 192 and should therefore have been excluded from the procurement procedure;
- (c) the contract should not have been awarded to the contractor in view of a serious infringement of the obligations under the Treaties and Directive 2014/24/EU of the European Parliament and of the Council of 26 February 2014 on public procurement and repealing Directive 2004/18/EC that has been declared by the Court of Justice of the European Union in a procedure pursuant to Article 258 of the TFEU;

(d) the contractor fails to discharge any obligation which he has contracted.

(2) If the contracting authority has no valid reason for the termination, it is to compensate the contractor for all his expenses and work and to pay him a sum to be fixed by the court, according to circumstances, but not exceeding the profits which the contractor could have made by the contract.

(3) If the contracting authority has valid reason for the termination, it is to pay the contractor only such sum which shall not exceed the actual proven expenses and work of the contractor.

(4) Any payment made in advance to the contractor before the termination of the contract shall be applied to the sums due in terms of sub-regulations (2) or (3) and the contractor shall return any resulting excess to the contracting authority.

(5) The contract shall be immediately terminated when the contracting authority informs the contractor, by any means whatsoever, of its decision to terminate the contract, and this without the need of any authorization or confirmation by any court or board.

(6) Contracting authorities listed under Schedule 16 must, in so far as the call for tenders has been published by the Ministerial Procurement Unit, obtain the approval of their Permanent Secretary before terminating a contract.

(7) (a) The Director has the right to issue a decision terminating any contract or agreement that could have been reached or signed with a contractor if it transpires that the award of that contract has been made in breach of these regulations or else by discriminating between economic operators.

(b) The decision leading to the termination of the contract in accordance with this sub-regulation must be made in writing and must include the findings and the reasons.

(c) A copy of this decision must be delivered to the contractor, who has the right to contest it by filing a compliant before the Review Board as explained under regulation 283.

(d) The termination of the contract will remain suspended as long as the time limit for the submission of the complaint in front of the Review Board or the Court of Appeal lapses and during the duration of these same procedures.

(e) A contractor shall have no right to be compensated for the actual loss or loss of profits, where the decision to terminate the contract is confirmed, with the exception that the contractor will have the right to receive compensation he deserves for the work that he demonstrates to have carried out.

Ineffectiveness of a contract

277. (1) An interested party or a tenderer may file an application before the Public Contracts Review Board to declare that a contract with an estimated value which meets or exceeds the threshold established under Schedule 5 is ineffective.

Ineffectiveness of a contract.

(2) An interested party may only request the Public Contracts Review Board to declare a signed contract ineffective if the authority responsible for the tendering process has awarded a contract without prior publication of a contract notice in the Official Journal of the European Union without this being permissible in accordance with Directive 2014/23/EC, Directive 2014/24/EC and Directive 2014/25/EC.

(3) Any tenderer may also request the Public Contracts Review Board to declare a contract ineffective in the following two instances:

 - (b) the authority responsible for the tendering process or the contracting authority has published in the Official Journal of the European Union a notice as described in Article 3a of Directive 89/665 or Article 3a of Directive 92/13 expressing its intention to conclude the contract, and;
 - (c) the contract has not been concluded before the expiry of a period of at least ten calendar days with effect from the day following the date of the publication of this notice.

(5) An interested party or a bidder cannot proceed before a court or tribunal to challenge an award or a lack of award of a call for tender processed according to these regulations and they cannot ask for damages unless they have first resorted to all the remedies afforded under these regulations.

Request for compensation.

278. Apart from the declaration for the ineffectiveness of a contract the applicant may request the Public Contracts Review Board to liquidate and order the authority responsible for the tendering process and the contracting authority to compensate him for actual damages suffered.

Deposit and service.

279. The application must be served to the authority responsible for the tendering process, the contracting authority and to all signatories of the contract sought to be declared ineffective, who shall have twenty days to file a reply.

Decision of the Public Contracts Review Board.

Court of Appeal.
Cap. 12.

284. Any party who feels aggrieved by a decision taken by the Review Board may appeal to the Court of Appeal as constituted in accordance with article 41(1) of the Code of Organization and Civil Procedure by means of an application filed in the registry of that court within twenty calendar days from the date on which that decision has been made public.

Parties to the

285. The appeal application shall be addressed against the authority responsible for the tendering process, the contracting authority, the recommended tenderer, if any, and any other party involved in the proceedings before the Public Contracts Review Board, who may file a written reply within twenty days from the date of service:

Provided that if the appellant fails to try to serve the appeal application on all the parties above-mentioned within two weeks of the filing of the appeal, the Court, after hearing during the first sitting of the appeal the reasons why service was not effected, may declare by means of a decree delivered in open court that the appeal is deserted with expenses to be borne by the appellant.

Pending the decision of the Court the process of the call for tenders shall be suspended.

(3) In its decision the court has the power to cancel the tendering process if it appears to it that this is the best solution in the circumstances of the case; in this case no party will have the right to request damages because of the decision cancelling the call.

287. The Department of Contracts and a contracting authority may only refer a matter to the Court of Appeal in relation to a decision taken by the Review Board relating to the ineffectiveness of a contract or the award of damages.
